LEROY ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, aka
RM - BPP

Re San Francisco letter to Bureau dated 11/1/68.

LEROY ELDRIDGE CLEAVER appeared at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, (RPI), Troy, New York, on October 10, 1968. This was CLEAVER's first and only appearance in the Albany Division. This appearance was covered by sources and informants and his speech was taped in its entirety. A debriefing of all the sources and informants in attendance at CLEAVER's speech revealed that he was received enthusiastically by only a relatively small percentage of the approximately 1200 people attending. The sources indicate those in favor of his speech were affiliated with the Peace and Freedom Party and generally not students of RPI.

Write-ups by the local newspaper media and the "Polytechnic", a weekly student newspaper, reflected only the size of the crowd, predominantly students and the context of CLEAVER's speech. No where was there mentioned a disapproval of CLEAVER's appearance, his leadership qualities, or his language, except to describe it as "sometimes earthy".

BLACK NATIONALIST - HATE GROUPS
RACIAL INTELLIGENCE (BLACK PANTHER PARTY)
(BUDED 12/2/68)

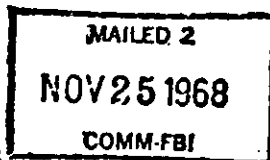

For the information of recipient offices a serious struggle is taking place between the Black Panther Party (BPP) and the US organization. The struggle has reached such proportions that it is taking on the aura of gang warfare with attendant threats of murder and reprisals.

In order to fully capitalize upon BPP and US differences as well as to exploit all avenues of creating further dissension in the ranks of the BPP, recipient offices are instructed to submit imaginative and hard-hitting counterintelligence measures aimed at crippling the BPP.

Commencing December 2, 1968, and every two-week period thereafter, each office is instructed to submit a letter under this caption containing counterintelligence measures aimed against the BPP. The bi-weekly letter should also contain accomplishments obtained during the previous two-week period under captioned program.

All counterintelligence actions must be approved at the Bureau prior to taking steps to implement them.

Officers of the Black Panther Party (BPP), Denver Chapter, were just recently elected.

Our office, which works closely with the [redacted] has been able to create considerable dissension within the ranks of the BPP.

[redacted] of the BPP, Denver, has been arrested on several occasions by local authorities and is currently scheduled to go to trial in Denver District Court. [redacted] another BPP member, is scheduled to go to trial in U. S. District Court. This action by local authorities has proven to be effective in limiting the actions of the BPP and also to keep the membership down and the treasury depleted. Due to harassment by the local Police Department, BPP members have become suspicious of each other. Recently, one member [redacted] was suspended as a suspected informant, when he was not an informant.

to receive, under this caption, visual material relating to violence by black extremists. Photographs of scenes of racial violence, sniping attacks on police such as those at the Cleveland, Ohio, riot this year, photographs of arsenals of black extremists, and of black extremists engaged in military-type drill, are needed. NOTE: In connection with briefing of officials of the new administration and briefing of police instructors, In-Service groups, National Academy groups, and new Agents, charts and exhibits have been prepared utilizing material available at Seat of Government. It is desirable to canvass the field for further examples of material now available and to insure that appropriate items are submitted on a continuing basis. Re Bulet 11/25/68.

On 11/19/68, a group of members of the BPP held up a service station in San Francisco and then, when stopped by the San Francisco Police Department, engaged in a shooting fray, in which three police officers were wounded. Participating prominently were two local [redacted] of the BPP, [redacted] Only [redacted] was armed and did all the shooting, which took place close to Police Headquarters. The truck in which the Panthers were riding was clearly marked as a BPP vehicle. ELDRIDGE CLEAVER was reported in the press as being astounded at such an episode, with so little chance of success, and which received very bad publicity for the BPP. It was so illogical, he charged, that there must have been a police plant in the truck, and suspicion centered on [redacted] because he was the man in charge; likewise he had gone "to the men's room" during the holdup, and the BPP suspected he may have gone to phone the police.

[redacted] In order to help this idea, the San Francisco Office arranged through the SFPD to give [redacted] special privileges at City Prison, such as more lenient visiting hours, and to have the guards show him "extra" courtesy in front of other prisoners. Also, with Bureau concurrence, an anonymous letter was sent to BPP Headquarters via Omaha, where [redacted] was in August, 1968, organizing a new BPP branch, and where he had been temporarily detained and interviewed by police, suggesting that the brothers in Omaha were suspicious of [REDACTED], who had easily gotten out of jail on a local charge.

The success of this operation is unknown, however, it is certain to have added to the suspicions of the BPP toward [REDACTED] who is actually an important man in the San Francisco BPP.

The San Francisco Office wishes to point out that opportunities such as the above are rare, and fast action is necessary to successfully implement them. It cannot be expected that a planned disruption in the average case would be of such probable value.

It is believed that the BPP is becoming sensitive to the possibility of informers. This office will try to ascertain those Panthers who have been arrested and who the BPP thinks might start to talk. We would then formulate some plan to cast suspicion on the man. We must bear in mind that if the plan is successful, a gang-type murder may be the result.

Recently, the San Francisco Office ascertained that ELDRIDGE CLEAVER was "dating" teenage girls and neglecting his wife, the dynamic and handsome KATHLEEN CLEAVER. With Bureau permission, the dating information was made available to Mrs. CLEAVER. Results of the above are not known.

Attention will be given to this program on a continuous basis.

10/4/68.1. Operations Under Consideration

Boston believes that the recent triple killing of three Negroes in the office of the New England Grass Roots Organization on 11/13/68 could be exploited to expose the background of the militant Negroes in the civil rights field in Boston who receive funds from various agencies.

The five shooting victims and the three Negroes subsequently arrested for the shootings all have criminal backgrounds. GUIDO ST. LAURENT and CARNELL EATON, who were killed, served time together for the brutal robbery of an elderly public housing manager where they beat him although he offered no resistance. KING, the third murder victim, is not known to have a record. The other two victims, [REDACTED] have extensive criminal records.

The three Negroes involved in the shooting are [REDACTED]

As far as can be determined at the present time, the shooting was the result of a struggle between members of this group for money and power. The New England Grass Roots Organization was under consideration to participate in a grant of $1,900,000. to develop a school to teach unskilled persons the trade of auto mechanic.

GUIDO ST. LAURENT, the deceased director of New England Grass Roots Organization, had built up a tremendous influence for himself and his organization by representing himself as the voice of the black community.

It is believed an article giving publicity to the fact that persons with backgrounds such as these, without any experience and with absence of moral character, are able to be officially regarded as the voice of the community and funded with money from various sources solely because the great majority of the black community remain passive, might have a positive effect on the community.

The article could urge the black community to take over existing civil rights groups and run them for the benefit of the community or to organize new groups and go after funds which might otherwise be misused.

If funds could be diverted from militant civil rights groups, it would disrupt the activities of such groups and possibly put them out of business.

Boston believes an article such as this could be published in the "Boston Herald-Traveler" without the article being connected with the FBI.

Re Springfield letter to the Bureau dated 9/4/68.

Regarding the book, "Ghetto Rebellion to Black Liberation" by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Communist Party U.S.A. functionary mentioned in previous letters, the Springfield Division is now, and has been for several months, [REDACTED]

To date, all orders have come from public institutions such as schools, universities, and libraries, and therefore, offer no counterintelligence opportunities.

Regarding racial matters in Springfield, Illinois, information had been received during the summer of 1968 that the local Negro group, The Black Egyptians, formerly known as the Black Brothers of Springfield, were holding their meetings at a [REDACTED]

On 9/17/68, the records of the Office of the County Tax Assessor were checked concerning the property located [REDACTED] and the property was found to be owned by [REDACTED]

It was determined that [REDACTED]

Subsequently, [REDACTED] was contacted and advised that he has owned the property at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] knew of the tenants was that it was supposed to have been rented to a Negro woman with two sons, she being either divorced or widowed. He advised he has received some complaints from other people in the neighborhood, both white and Negro, concerning late hours and loud noise, and other disturbances at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] further advised that he had heard from [REDACTED] that the tenants were some $300 to $400 behind on rent and he suggested that contact be made with the [REDACTED]. The Bureau's interest and jurisdiction in racial matters was fully explained to [REDACTED] on a confidential basis and he stated that he would be willing to cooperate in this matter.

[REDACTED] further advised that because [REDACTED] was some three months overdue with her rent payments and that there had been numerous complaints concerning treatment of the property, that [REDACTED] were going to personally inspect the premises on [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] made the premises available to an Agent of the Springfield Division, without his identity being revealed, and on an inspection tour, in the basement, it was noted that Black Power slogans had been painted on the walls with black spray paint and numerous posters also hung on the walls. These posters read as follows:

"When the President is in the chair shut up"
"No Black Egyptians will be admitted without membership cards"
"Dues must be paid or you will not be allowed in the meeting"

During the inspection, nothing that would indicate weapons or incendiary devices was noticed.

Two young Negro males were observed on the premises [REDACTED] and they resembled photographs of [REDACTED] whose names have come to light before in connection with the Black Brothers of Springfield.

[REDACTED] advised the Springfield Division that the [REDACTED] had vacated the premises at [REDACTED] and requested an Agent accompany him on another inspection of the property, in the company of the [REDACTED]. During this inspection, certain items were found which included membership rolls for the Black Egyptians, minutes of past meetings, By-laws, and receipts from local merchants who contributed to the organization. This information is still being analyzed and when completed, the Bureau will be notified in detail, with counterintelligence possibilities set forth.

Another matter in Springfield with counterintelligence value concerns [REDACTED]. Within the past few weeks, [REDACTED] has reopened a "car-wash" establishment in Springfield which had been closed for some time. Information from informants and sources have revealed that [REDACTED] received financial assistance from the Federal Government to undertake this project, the money coming either from Housing and Urban Development, Smaller Business Administration, or Office of Economic Opportunity. Inquires are being made to determine the exact source of these funds and when this is determined, appropriate counterintelligence steps will be taken regarding [REDACTED] and a convicted felon who has recently had his probation revoked and will begin an [REDACTED]-month term at the Illinois State Prison on [REDACTED].

Re Los Angeles letter to Bureau dated 9/25/68.

I. OPERATIONS UNDER CONSIDERATION

The Los Angeles Office is currently preparing an anonymous letter for Bureau approval which will be sent to the Los Angeles Black Panther Party (BPP) supposedly from a member of the "US" organization in which it will be stated that the youth group of the "US" organization is aware of the BPP "contract" to kill RON KARENGA, leader of "US", and they, "US" members, in retaliation, have made plans to ambush leaders of the BPP in Los Angeles.

It is hoped this counterintelligence measure will result in an "US" and BPP vendetta.

Investigation has indicated that the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) has been furnishing the BPP with financial assistance. An anonymous letter is being prepared for Bureau approval to be sent to a leader of PFP in which it is set forth that the BPP has made statements in closed meetings that when the armed rebellion comes the whites in the PFP will be lined up against the wall with the rest of the whites.

It is felt that this type of a letter could cause considerable disruption of the association between the BPP and the PFP.

In order to cause disruption between the BPP of Oakland, California, and the BPP of Los Angeles, an envelope is being prepared for Bureau approval which appears to have been prepared and distributed by the Los Angeles BPP soliciting donations for defense of HUEY NEWTON and to be mailed to the mailing address of [REDACTED] or Los Angeles BPP headquarters. This envelope, with a small donation, will be inadvertently sent to the BPP in Oakland.

It is hoped that the BPP in Oakland would get the impression that a considerable amount of money was being collected in Los Angeles and not sent to the Oakland headquarters.

II. OPERATIONS BEING EFFECTED

By letter dated 11/12/68, the Los Angeles Office furnished the New York Office with a list of prominent Negro leaders in the Los Angeles area to whom a newspaper article which appeared in the New York Daily News could be mailed. This article portrayed the fear the Black Panther Party instills in the Negro community. The Los Angeles Office will closely follow the reaction of these leaders to the article.

At the request of the New York Office and with Bureau approval, the Los Angeles Office mailed the prepared letter to [REDACTED] in the hopes of furthering discord between CLEAVER and the New York BPP. The Los Angeles Office will remain alert for any reaction to this letter by the Los Angeles BPP.

A survey of toll calls of various black nationalist leaders is continuing under present Bureau policy with the results of these reviews being considered for action under the counterintelligence program.

An analysis is being made of the income tax returns of various black nationalist leaders to determine if a counter-intelligence technique might be utilized.

The Los Angeles Office is continuing to follow closely the arrest records of all black nationalists to determine if any of these individuals might be prosecuted under State or Federal law.

LA 157-1751

The acquisition of firearms by black nationalist leaders in this division is being closely followed and dissemination is being made to interested agencies.

III. TANGIBLE RESULTS

None.

IV. DEVELOPMENTS OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INTEREST

Friction between the BPP and "US" continues in the Los Angeles area with [REDACTED] another "US" leader, slated to be killed. BPP leaders feel that their new member, [REDACTED], has been instructed by "US" to infiltrate the BPP and report back to "US". The BPP continues in their efforts to take over the leadership of the black nationalist movement. The Los Angeles Office will utilize every technique to capitalize on this development and hinder the BPP's efforts in this regard.

RACIAL INTELLIGENCE (BLACK PANTHER PARTY)

Re Bureau letter to Baltimore, 11/25/68.

Indianapolis has no US organization but it does have a chapter of the Black Panther Party. In addition to Black Panther Party, Indianapolis has several other black organizations involved in rivalry with the Black Panther Party.

Rivalry at this time has been principally in two areas. The first area is attempting to get the limelight and publicity in news media with the newspaper and television. The other area in which rivalry is the strongest is involving finances. Each organization is attempting to obtain funds from the black community and from white businessmen. Funds have been collected by these groups for certain purposes which supposedly were for the good of the black community. It has been learned from informants that these funds have not been used for the purposes for which they were originally collected. In most instances, these funds disappear into the hands of the leaders for their own desire. This has come to the attention of several informants and the informants have discussed this with other members and this has had an affect of causing dissention among the organizations. This method has helped to cripple several local organizations and now is seemingly having an affect in the Black Panther Party in Indianapolis. Many members are unhappy with the leaders of the Black Panther Party and as a result membership is dropping sharply rather than increasing. One of the most active members, the Minister of Defense of the Indianapolis Chapter of the Black Panther Party, has turned in his resignation as a result of this matter.

Since date of referenced letter the Minneapolis Division has continued to enjoy a lack of racial oriented violence. There have been the usual yet small number of isolated minor arrest problems, but again none that could be characterized as racial in nature. There have been no violent outbreaks of any type.

As of this writing there are no active Black Nationalist Hate Groups operating in the Minneapolis Division, except the Nation of Islam whose membership remains fairly constant and which has not been involved in local racial disturbances. There was an attempt on the night of November 21, 1968, at a community center known as The Way, Incorporated, on Plymouth Avenue in North Minneapolis, to establish a branch of the Black Panther Party. However, from contact with informants and sources present at the meeting, it broke up without such an organization being formed in view of complete disagreement among some of the local militants and others present as to who was to run it and how it was to be organized.

There has been no indication of any further meetings being planned and no information developed indicating that the Black Panther Party will be organized in the Twin City area in the immediate future. Informants have been directed to follow this closely, and additional coverage is being developed on a continuing basis to insure that Minneapolis will be aware of any possible future activity towards development of such an organization.

SUBJECT: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM

RACIAL INTELLIGENCE
(BLACK LIBERATORS)

This is to advise of successful counterintelligence operation aimed at black extremist groups in St. Louis, Missouri.

BACKGROUND:

The Black Liberators is a black nationalist extremist group in St. Louis. Members of this group have attacked police officers. The Zulu 1200s, a second black nationalist group in St. Louis, is less militant than the Black Liberators. St. Louis composed a flier comparing the two groups which criticized the Black Liberators. We authorized St. Louis to anonymously mail copies of this flier.

RESULTS:

Sources advised that the flier appears to be the result of a feud between the two groups. A Negro newspaper and a regular daily paper in St. Louis carried news stories regarding the flier as evidence of a dispute between the two black nationalist groups. The articles added to the dissemination of the information in the flier and tended to add credence to the complaints against the Black Liberators made in the flier.

Thus we have been able to achieve wide circulation of the flier's message, that the Black Liberators, an extremist group, is not really interested in the Negro's welfare. This will greatly hamper the group's recruiting efforts.

90-DAY PROGRESS LETTER

I. COUNTER INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS UNDER CONSIDERATION

The Memphis Office is continuing efforts to develop individuals with suitable informant potential who are willing to join local black power organizations at Memphis, Tennessee.

UACB, the Memphis Office plans to increase the amount of derogatory information obtained through investigations concerning black power militants at Memphis, Tennessee, presently being given to a reliable and trusted newspaper source at Memphis, Tennessee. The purpose of this is to assist this newspaper source in writing articles embarrassing to local black militants. Efforts along these lines have been successful as set forth later in this letter under the caption, "Counterintelligence Operations Being Effectuated."

II. COUNTER INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS BEING EFFECTED

Interview Program

The Memphis Office is continuing to interview all newly developed sympathizers with black militant organizations at Memphis, Tennessee. This has resulted in several individuals who for a short period of time were associated with black militant organizations at Memphis who immediately upon being interviewed by Agents of the Memphis Office discontinued their association with these black power groups.

Information is being furnished on a daily basis to the Intelligence Unit of the Memphis, Tennessee, Police Department regarding activities and members of black militant organizations at Memphis. This has been of great assistance to the Memphis Police Department enabling the Intelligence Unit of the Memphis Police Department to identify for officers working in Negro ghetto areas individuals who are actual members of black militant organizations.

Information furnished to trusted reporters of local daily newspapers regarding the militant aims of black militant organizations at Memphis, Tennessee, is continuing and has been quite successful in alerting the general public in the Memphis area through articles written by these trusted newspaper sources as to the actual aims of several black militant groups at Memphis, Tennessee.

III. TANGIBLE RESULTS OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS

The furnishing of information to trusted newspaper sources has resulted in considerable embarrassment, according to sources of the Memphis Office, to various leaders of the black militant organizations at Memphis, Tennessee. It has also tended to discredit these organizations in the minds of numerous Negro citizens of Memphis.

[REDACTED] concerning the black militant group at Memphis, Tennessee, known as the Invaders, a cell of the Black Organizing Project (BOP). This article which was based on information obtained through FBI investigations pointed out that the Invaders have set up offices in a building at 1310 Florida Street, the rent for which is paid with Federal, City and County funds by the Memphis-Shelby County War on Poverty (WOP) Committee organizations. [REDACTED] pointed out that this group headed by [REDACTED] currently free on bond, on a charge of participating in a riot last spring at Carver High School and recently arrested by the Vice Squad of the Memphis Police Department on a raid at his apartment, charging him with illegal possession of legend drugs. [REDACTED] pointed out, that in this article, that the Invaders have been passing out membership applications. [REDACTED] pointed out that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] of the Neighborhood

Organizing Project (NOP) program this month by the WOP Executive Board because he was arrested by the police in a raid on [REDACTED] apartment. [REDACTED] emphasized that the NOP is a $20,000.00 WOP Committee project with $17,000.00 of the funds going for salaries. [REDACTED] pointed out that on the weekend of 8/10-11/68 BOP printed a black position paper entitled, "Liberation Thesis," a 4-page document setting forth the program of BOP, and [REDACTED] pointed out that it closely followed the outline of the militant Black Panther organization.

In this article, [REDACTED] pointed out that the aims of this organization are the requirements that this organization and the Negro militants at Memphis, Tennessee, must have their liberation through any means necessary. [REDACTED] set forth the fact that [REDACTED] the self-admitted leader of the Black Organizing Project (BOP) at Memphis, Tennessee, is now facing Federal Court charges for refusal to report for induction.

In a previous article based on information furnished by the Memphis Office to this writer, [REDACTED] discredited the Invaders to the point where several of the leaders were fired from their positions with the NOP.

[REDACTED] that would tend to discredit and minimize the activities of black militant groups at Memphis, Tennessee.

[REDACTED]

IV. DEVELOPMENTS OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INTEREST

During the past 90 days at Memphis, Tennessee, there has come into existence a Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) Chapter located primarily on the Memphis State University Campus which is composed primarily of white individuals. There are a few Negro members of this organization; however, information being received by the Memphis Office indicates that a close working agreement is in effect between this newly formed SDS chapter and the Black Student Association, a recognized organization on the Memphis State Campus and one of the cells of the over-all black power organization at Memphis known as Black Organizing Project (BOP) [REDACTED]

Based on information received, there is some indication that the aims and purposes of the Black Student Association at Memphis, Tennessee, and the newly formed SDS chapter at Memphis, Tennessee, are identical.

The Memphis Office continues to remain alert for any information which might be utilized in disrupting the activities of or embarrassing local black militant individuals or organizations at Memphis, Tennessee.

The Bureau will be kept advised of all developments in this matter.

The Portland School Board has given approval for the formation of Black Student Unions (BSU) in the various high schools in the city of Portland, Oregon. These organizations are not necessarily to be called BSU and may select any name agreed upon by the student members.

(1) Operations Under Consideration:

Portland has recommended a counterintelligence maneuver aimed at exploiting the factionalism existing in the Black Panther Party (BPP). To carry this out it has been recommended that a paper organization with headquarters in a West Coast city outside the San Francisco Bay area be established. The organization could publish material aimed at disrupting the organizations and bringing their leadership under fire.

Re Pittsburgh letter to Bureau dated 10/15/68, captioned, as above; and Pittsburgh letter to Bureau dated 11/20/68, captioned, "RACIAL VIOLENCE FOLLOWING ASSASSINATION OF MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR."

Referenced letter dated 11/20/68, furnished the Bureau a copy of a report of the fact finding committee of the Pittsburgh Fraternal Order of Police concerning the April, 1968, riot in Pittsburgh. Page 23 and following of this report set out information relating to the utilization of "Red Vests" in the Homewood District of Pittsburgh, and the participation of [redacted] in this program. As a counter intelligence technique to discredit [redacted] and to continue our efforts to "dry up" funds being made available for his use, Pittsburgh proposes that the following fictitious letter be sent to the Pittsburgh Presbytery, 300 6th Avenue, Pittsburgh. In addition it has proposed that the same letter, altered slightly as set out here in after, be sent to a representative number of Presbyterian Churches in the Pittsburgh area, addressed to the Pastor thereof, addresses of which will be obtained from the Pittsburgh telephone directory. Included in this list will be the Beverly Heights United Presbyterian Church, Mt. Lebanon, Pa., [redacted]. [redacted] is very interested in the roll of the Presbyterian Church in racial matters, insofar as it pertains to financially aiding black militants and trouble makers. Information relating to [redacted] and the use of Presbyterian funds has been previously furnished to the Bureau in Counter Intelligence letters relating to [redacted]. A copy of the letter will not be sent to [redacted] name, however, inasmuch as to do so would possibly pinpoint the Bureau as the origin of these letters. a letter directed to the Beverly Heights Presbyterian Church would come to the attention of [REDACTED]

The letter to be sent will read as follows:

"Dear Sir:

"I have just read the report of the April riot prepared by the Pittsburgh FOP. This report indicates that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] selected the members of the Red Vests who were to patrol Homewood during the riot, and attempt to cool the situation. According to the report the persons selected by [REDACTED] had a total of 85 criminal offenses. The report also indicates that these Red Vests were permitted on the streets during the riot against the advice and wishes of police officers and two of them were subsequently arrested while looting a Homewood bar and others were involved in harassing police officers.

"An article in the Pittsburgh Press dated January 18, 1968, indicates that [REDACTED] was arrested on a charge of visiting a gambling house on January 17, 1968. This article identified [REDACTED] a non-profit corporation established jointly by the Pittsburgh Presbytery and the Pittsburgh Catholic Diocese.

"It appears that church funds are being utilized to finance hoodlums and rioters in Homewood. I'm sure there are much more competent and desirable people in Homewood than [REDACTED] who could be found to do the work of the church there. I strongly protest this use of Presbyterian funds and then requesting others to join me in this protest. (This last sentence will be changed in the letters to the Presbyterian Churches to read as follows: I hope you will join me and others in a strong protest of this use of Presbyterian funds.)

On 10/18/68, the NYO submitted an article which appeared in the "Columbia Spectator", official newspaper of Columbia University. This article indicated that generally speaking the students were disappointed with ELDREDGE CLEAVER as a speaker and also doubted his leadership qualities. The NYO suggested that the Bureau and SF attempt to determine if we are able to collect other like articles about CLEAVER and then send them to BPP headquarters to deride CLEAVER. The SF office considered that the above suggestion had merit and requested other offices to furnish like articles concerning the speaking engagements of CLEAVER.

In October, 1968, the NYO suggested that the Chambers of Commerce both national and local use their office to sponsor music festivals, amateur hours, boxing events and other sporting events in the Negro areas.

Efforts are currently being made to monitor the checking accounts of [REDACTED]

On 11/27/68, the NYO requested permission of Bureau to send letter to the Peace and Freedom Party. It is hoped that this letter might help arrest the flow of funds which might be going from the PFP to the BPP.

And Tangible Results

On 10/10/68, the NYO suggested that the Bureau give consideration to the xeroxing of a sufficient number of copies of an article which appeared in the "New York Daily News", 9/18/68. Page 36 of this newspaper contained information to the effect [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] disclosed that fear of the Black Panthers forced her to resign her leadership role in civil rights organizations. It was recommended that this article be mailed to well known Negro leaders throughout the US, who reside in cities where the BPP have chapters.

On 10/29/68, the Bureau approved the NYO suggestion and as a result letters were sent out to 326 individuals who reside in 21 cities. It is too early to estimate the tangible results of this project.

On a continuing basis the NYO has tried to foster hostile attitudes between the BPP and SNCC. This has mainly been accomplished by pretext phone calls to both organizations. As of 10/8/68 [REDACTED] SNCC stated, when telephonically pretexted, that SNCC is constantly guarding their premises against attacks by the BPP. On 10/4/68, Brother [REDACTED] of the BPP stated when pretexted that he heard that SNCC was going to dynamite the BPP office and they were going to get a hot reception as the BPP has two live snakes in the basement.

On 10/22/68, the NYO prepared a letter to be sent to ELDREDGE CLEAVER pending Bureau approval. This letter suggested that some members of the BPP were planning to kill CLEAVER. The Bureau approved the NY recommendation and as a result the letter was sent out on 11/14/68.

NY 100-161140

On 10/30/68, the NYO prepared a letter to be sent to [REDACTED], from a soul brother. It was suggested that the letter be sent from the Los Angeles area. This letter indicated that CLEAVER should have turned some of the money he received from speaking engagements in the NY area over to the NY organization. The Bureau approved the suggestion and LA sent out the letter.

On 11/1/68, the Bureau commended the NYO for the effective matter in which Baltimore and NY utilized racial informants to neutralize the BPP efforts in Baltimore, Md.

4. Developments of Counterintelligence Interest

Every effort is being made in the NYO to misdirect the operations of the BPP on a daily basis. The NYO is continuing to conduct interviews with BPP members and friends of members. These interviews might provide fuel for further counterintelligence action.

Re Bureau letter to Baltimore dated 11/25/68.

[REDACTED] of the Black Panther Party in Omaha, was interviewed on 11/27/68 by Special Agents of the Omaha Office in connection with an Antiriot Laws matter. [REDACTED] in Omaha and advised he had attended the National BPP Retreat in the San Francisco area from 11/16 through 19/68, which Retreat was held for the purpose of reorganizing the BPP along the lines of a military organization. He indicated that the BPP in Omaha was in the process of reorganizing, which partially explains the fact that, according to informants, regular meetings of the BPP in Omaha have not taken place for the past several weeks.

The Black Panther Organization, Incorporated, Des Moines, Iowa, filed Articles of Incorporation in the State of Iowa in July, 1968, for the purpose of obtaining anti-poverty funds but when unable to do so, this organization two months later filed Articles of Dissolution. Leaders of the defunct BPO, since its dissolution, have continued to operate as a loose-knit group, however, to date the organization and purposes of this group are not known.

In view of the present status of the BPP in the Omaha Division, it is not felt that intelligent recommendations can be made at this time regarding counterintelligence measures aimed at crippling the BPP. This matter will continue to be closely followed by Omaha, and any suggestions for counterintelligence action against the BPP or its leadership will be submitted by separate letter.

Remylet, 8/30/68.

The captioned program has developed no new effective avenues during the past three month period.

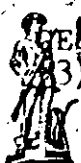

In brief, the black nationalist organization situation in the Buffalo Division can be described as follows. The Nation of Islam (NOI) continues to maintain a mosque in Buffalo, N.Y., and an auxiliary mosque in Rochester, N.Y. Total membership is slightly over 100 for both units. The effectiveness of the NOI in this division is minimal since the stringent regulations imposed on its members and the financial drain to the individual participant do not attract the majority of Negroes in this area. During the past several months, there has been some natural dissatisfaction in the NOI in Buffalo arising out of the purchase by the Minister of a rather expensive home in the white suburb of Buffalo known as Snyder, N.Y. Financial obligations incurred by the Minister, as a result of this purchase, will be felt by him as early as December, 1968, and January, 1969. Informants have reported some rumbles of discontent over the actions of the Minister, this discontent evidencing itself in poor attendance at public meetings held weekly at the mosque. In an attempt to stimulate more public interest in the NOI, two movies were shown at the mosque on 12/1/68 following the regular meeting. One film was a science fiction plot and the other a cowboy movie. It is to be noted in this regard that the mosque is presently located in a former movie theater. The films did attract most of the members of the mosque, and they all stayed to watch the movies after the meeting. Informants do not know if this is going to be a regular format for future meetings, but Buffalo will follow carefully and consider the possibility of approaching the moving picture unions or other theater organizations with the view in mind of demanding that this sort of activity be discontinued by the NOI. The Bureau will be consulted before any positive action is taken.

As previously indicated, a Buffalo Chapter of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) started in Buffalo in the Fall of 1967.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] there is no one in the Buffalo area interested at present in taking over the operation of this chapter.

The Black Panther Party (BPP) established a unit in Rochester, N.Y., in the Fall of 1968. Membership appears to be very limited at the present time, and some of the officers have been identified.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Since this group is yet in its formative stage, the application of a counterintelligence program would seem to be premature. Buffalo does not desire that this chapter be disbanded until such time as the membership and program can be ascertained.

[REDACTED]

The only action taken by the Rochester Chapter of the BPP, since its inception, was to solicit a crowd to hear BPP leader, ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, speak at the University of Rochester and at a local high school, and to solicit support for a public demonstration on 11/23/68 on behalf of a BPP member who had been arrested. The latter demonstration was held but was attended only by the New Left groups from University of Rochester, and no BPP members were observed. This indicates that there is some reluctance on the part of alleged BPP members to appear publicly on behalf of this organization.

organization is headed by HENRY FORD II who is the Chairman. The program is based on a direct subsidy from the Federal Government. Local efforts are being made to coordinate these 3 employers' programs for maximum effectiveness and to eliminate duplication of effort.

The Chamber of Commerce and the San Francisco Human Rights Commission have a directory of 26 organizations that have programs for training and placement of members of minority group members. Efforts are being made to coordinate this effort so that training will lead to job opportunities. According to [redacted] at least one national organization with headquarters in San Francisco has been talking about restricting all summer employment to minority groups.

[redacted] pointed out that San Francisco is primarily an office employment center and that entrance - level job opportunities for the unskilled are at a minimum. It is no easy task to match the unemployed with existing job opportunities. He stated that many of them lack education, skills, and motivation. However, business communities will solve the problem because of the urgency of the situation and the caliber of the people actively working and interested in an intelligent solution.

On 10/29/68 [redacted] Anti-Defamation League, Division of the B'nai B'rith, advised that the Anti-Defamation League has launched a national campaign in an effort to combat problems among minority groups.

During the month of October, the National Department of Urban Affairs was set up with headquarters in New York, New York. The purpose of this department, which works closely with the NAACP and the Urban League, is to cope with the problem of unemployment, schools, housing, and other similar problems.

the Negro's have turned against the Jews is because the Negro's consider the Arabs "Black Men" and Israel is presently at conflict with the Arab nations. //

Another way the Anti-Defamation League is attempting to gain better understanding with the minority groups is by increasing their distribution of printed pamphlets and/or movies.

On 10/24 and 11/4/68, [redacted] ✓
[redacted] Oakland Chamber of Commerce (OCC), 1320 Webster Street, Oakland, California, advised that [redacted] office has offered its full facilities to law enforcement, public organizations, and private enterprises in search for means to alleviate racial tensions and to promote better understanding and relationships between the people and law enforcement agencies. He said that the black militant extremists continue to present serious problems to the entire Oakland community in spite of concentrated efforts of the businessmen, civic minded persons and police administrators to come up with the correct answers and meet the challenges these extremists present.

[redacted] that the OCC has successfully solicited funds and has provided publicity for the employment of hard core unemployed and promotion of better relations between the police and the minority races, with particular emphasis on the Negro race. He specified that the OCC has promoted or worked closely with the Opportunities Industrial Center (OIC), 2510 Grove Street, Oakland, which concentrates on developing a favorable attitude towards work and does not pay trainees while learning a skill. The OIC is mainly funded by the Federal government but receives considerable financial aid from the business establishments of Oakland.

A "work-study" program involving four hours of work and four hours of study each weekday has been recently inaugurated and is operating as an autonomous organization in Oakland with funds provided mainly by Kaiser Industries in Oakland, California.

closely with the Oakland Police Department (OPD) and provides publicity and services which the OPD cannot

Other publications provided for the OPD are as follows:

"We Welcome Your Complaint"

"The Citizen's Role in Crime Prevention"

"May We Meet With You?"

"Prevent Home Burglaries"

"Prevent Auto Thefts"

It is noted that the leaflet entitled "May We Meet With You?" in the opening paragraph states as follows:

"We in the Oakland Police Department are most willing and desirous of meeting with individuals and groups for the purpose of exchanging ideas, feelings and information regarding police policies, practices and procedures or any other pertinent subject of concern to you. We are particularly eager to meet with those whose views about the police may be characterized as critical or antagonistic."

1. Operations Under Consideration

As previously noted the only Black Nationalist organization active in this Div., is the Youth Progressive Committee in Montgomery, Ala., which has a reported membership of eight, two of whom are informants. The group has attempted to arrange for the opening of the Apollo Bar as a fund raising proposition for this organization, which is reportedly connected with SNCC. In the event this club is successful in getting this bar operation started, it is contemplated that action against the club could be taken through local State authorities directed towards revocation of the license of the bar.

2. Operations Being Effected

None

3. Tangible Results

Interviews with the members of this organization have been conducted during regular investigative activity and it is felt that these interviews have served as a disruptive factor and have contributed materially to the fact that the group has recently stopped regular meetings and has not proceeded with the opening of the Apollo Bar as originally planned.

Re Richmond letter to Bureau, 8/30/68.

Investigation by the Richmond Division has failed to develop any additional information regarding the existence of a group called the "Council for Cultural Consciousness" or of its alleged purposes.

The initial information developed regarding this organization was received from a person who claimed to be associated with said organization. Subsequent interviews with this person succeeded in eliciting information concerning meetings and membership of the alleged organization; however, investigation has proven this information to be false.

Richmond is continuing its efforts to identify militant black organizations and/or individuals within its territory and should positive results be achieved, Richmond will propose appropriate counterintelligence operations for Bureau approval.

The average Negro is very likely afraid or reluctant to report in person, by phone or in writing information which he may have regarding black militants. They need to be encouraged to do this, but it has to be made easy and secure for them to do so.

The Malaysian Government has encouraged its citizens to report communist activity and has set up a special address, P.O. Box 5000, to which anyone can write without revealing his identity, or even putting a stamp on an envelope. A great deal of mail has been directed to this box, some of it of considerable importance.

If not done previously, the Bureau may wish to consider, or have the Government consider, emulating such a plan and have a P.O. Box in Washington, D.C. or one in several large cities set aside and well advertised as one to which information relating to subversion and illegal activity, racial or otherwise, can be directed.

Re Bureau airtel to Albany, 3/4/68, and New Orleans letter to Bureau, 8/29/68.

BLACK NATIONALIST ORGANIZATIONS

The only overall change in the Black Nationalist movement in the New Orleans Division since the submission of referenced New Orleans letter, is that a local group at New Orleans, calling themselves the Black Peoples Party For Defense (BPPFD), are holding meetings. Sources report that the leader of this group [REDACTED] Sources have provided a list containing approximately 20 names, address and telephone numbers of persons alleged to be members of the BPPFD. Sources report that this group partakes in defensive tactics training and as well as other military-type training and is the only Black Nationalist group in New Orleans which might be considered extremist.

Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) continues to maintain an office in New Orleans, however, attempts to form a chapter and recruit members have met with little success. Other local Black Nationalist Organizations have either folded or are engaged in community type projects and have given no indication of extremist nature. The overall Black Nationalist movement in the New Orleans Division lacks leadership, continuity, with no cooperation among groups and is like the proverbial "ship without a rudder." These groups appear to be moving further apart as each group and its leaders continue to be jealous of one another.

at this time. It appears based on information provided by sources that these groups are doing an excellent job of defeating themselves.

II. OPERATIONS BEING EFFECTED

In regards to the BPPFD previously mentioned, we have opened up individual cases on individuals indicated ~~they~~ ^{are} members. As soon as enough background data is obtained Bureau authority is requested to interview these individuals.

It has been our experience in our previous investigation of the Klan and Klan members that one of the best counter-intelligence measures was the interview program and therefore an interview program has been instituted in regards to the BPPFD.

New Orleans continues to be alert for information which would indicate that local Black Nationalists may be in violation of a local law so that this information can be furnished to local authorities for appropriate action.

III. TANGIBLE RESULTS

At the present time, it is too early to evaluate the results of our interview program in relationship to the BPPFD. Any tangible results should be evident in the next three-month period. We anticipate through this interview program to at least "sow the seeds of distrust" of the members for each other.

IV. DEVELOPMENTS OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INTEREST

In regard to [REDACTED] mentioned in referenced New Orleans letter, [REDACTED] has been further discredited and neutralized inasmuch as he has been arrested and charged with accessory to armed robbery and is currently in jail.

Re Miami letter to the Bureau, 8/28/68.

The black nationalist movement within the Miami Division has changed somewhat since submission of referenced letter. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) whose charter was revoked almost a year ago had been operating officially under the name of "Poor Peoples Campaign Support Group" although they had been accepted in the Miami area as an SCLC chapter. They have become almost completely inactive since the Republican National Convention at Miami Beach in August, 1968. They do not hold regular meetings and have not organized or supported any particular civil rights activity. Their only objective since the Republican National Convention reportedly has been to attempt to collect money to pay telephone bills occurred during the Republican National Convention and the "Poor Peoples Campaign".

[REDACTED] of the Miami SCLC, an agitator index subject of the Miami Office appears to have become completely inactive in the civil rights movement in this area. He has no known following and is not known presently to be associated with any organization. He is still awaiting trial for grand larceny charges pending against him in local court.

With the commencing of a scholastic year the United Black Students (UBS) has re-established itself at the University of Miami and is attempting to organize on the campuses of Miami Dade Junior College.

He told members to ask contacting agents if they have a warrant and if they do not have a warrant the FBI has no right to talk to them. V. Miscellaneous

It was mentioned in referenced letter that an assistant captain of Mosque 29 was apparently guilty of bigamy and this would be exploited under captioned program. Since referenced letter [REDACTED] mentioned above, and [REDACTED] have been added to Miami's agitator index. [REDACTED] is not connected with any organization and reportedly only has a small following of young Negro hoodlums.

I. Operations Under Consideration

Miami is considering resubmitting a request to the Bureau to capitalize on recent allegations that [REDACTED] of Mosque 29 of the NOI in Miami has been having an affair with a female member of that mosque. Such allegations have been circulating as rumors among members of Mosque 29 and the Miami Office hopes to capitalize on this through the submission of an anonymous letter to NOI Headquarters in Chicago alleging the minister is having such an affair.

II. Operations Being Effectuated

The counterintelligence program is being considered in connection with Miami's interview program of members of the NOI. Approximately 15 NOI members and leaders have been interviewed since submission of referenced letter and it is anticipated that 9 or 10 members will be interviewed or re-interviewed in the near future.

Re Columbia letter to Bureau, 8/30/68.

I. SUMMARY OF CHANGES SINCE REFERENCED LETTER

Since 9/1/68, the Black Nationalist Movement in S. C. has been relatively inactive. The Black Awareness Coordinating Committee (BACC) has been reactivated at both S. C. State College and Voorhees College. BACC at Greenville, S. C. continues to be active [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The Association of Afro-American Students (AAAS) has been reactivated at the University of South Carolina (USC), Columbia, S. C.

It should be noted, however, that there has been no organizational activity on the part of groups with national reputations such as the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) in S. C. One interesting factor should also be noted. The most militant of the black power advocates in South Carolina have either left the state or are completely inactive at the present time. For example, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] have returned to Atlanta, Ga., and are presently residing there. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] of AAAS have completed their work at USC and/or have failed academically and they have either left the state or have been completely inactive during recent months.

Another militant is [REDACTED] and she has left the Columbia area and her present whereabouts are unknown. There are several local warrants outstanding against [REDACTED]

It should be further noted that to date no leaders have appeared in South Carolina to take the place of the above militant former leaders of the Black Nationalist Movement in South Carolina.

II. OPERATIONS UNDER CONSIDERATION

1. The NOI in Columbia continues to build its new mosque; however, construction seems to be extremely slow and it appears it will be a number of months before final completion. Columbia continues to follow this construction and at the appropriate time will recommend that City Building Inspectors be contacted so they can inspect this building to insure that all building codes are being complied with.

2. [REDACTED] ✓
[REDACTED] This matter is being followed very closely; however, to date there have been no problems in the high schools in Columbia, S. C.

3. [REDACTED] identified above, [REDACTED] and the Bureau was requested for permission to contact the Security Officer at [REDACTED] in order that these individuals might be arrested for trespassing should they be observed on the campus during the late evening hours. This suggestion was not approved by the Bureau and subsequent investigation has determined that [REDACTED] whereabouts are unknown.

III. OPERATIONS BEING EFFECTED

With regard to the automobile accident in Ohio involving [REDACTED] the car rental agency has dropped prosecution in this matter on orders of their headquarters since they felt they would be unable to collect in this matter. Information regarding this operation has previously been furnished to the Bureau.

Under this heading it might be noted [REDACTED] steps will be taken to equalize their effectiveness and possible attractiveness to non-militant students. Columbia feels that this program is an excellent program and that it will keep problems in the high schools at a very minimum.

Investigation is continuing in the matter of the black militants using a fictitious telephone credit card. Investigation is being handled under the Fraud By Wire Statute in this matter. The S. C. Law Enforcement Division and the Security Unit of Southern Bell Telephone Co. have already conducted an investigation in this matter and it is interesting to note that no telephone calls using fictitious credit cards have been made by any of these black militants since that investigation was initiated. No prosecutive action has been taken by S. C. in this matter at the present time.

IV. TANGIBLE RESULTS

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is on academic probation at the present time and since he has allegedly left the state and gone to [REDACTED] it is not believed he will re-enter [REDACTED] in the near future.

I. OPERATIONS UNDER CONSIDERATION

Jackson Division is still considering the possibility of contacting local television and/or newspaper representatives regarding a story on the black nationalists activists in Miss., attempting to show them in an unfavorable light. As activity in Miss. has not been significant lately, and due to the fact that several key black nationalists in the state have departed the state within the past three to four months, this operation is being held in abeyance, however, is still being considered for pursuing at the pertinent time and when an appropriate target is considered logical.

II. OPERATIONS BEING EFFECTED AND TANGIBLE RESULTS and III.

By letter dated 8/21/68, the Bureau approved the Jackson Division preparing a spurious letter to be sent to alleged [REDACTED] who at that time, was residing in Jackson. The letter, in its text, was directed to [REDACTED] who then was residing at [REDACTED]. The letter was written to imply that [REDACTED] was an informant of some Miss. law enforcement agency. Steps were taken to give the appearance that the letter by error was sent to [REDACTED] when meant to be sent to [REDACTED]. This letter was prepared and sent to [REDACTED] on 8/27/68, using necessary precaution to insure the letter could not be traced to the Bureau.

[REDACTED] departed Miss. permanently during the last few days in [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] departed Miss. the first week of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] allegedly en route to [REDACTED] new residence in [REDACTED] was verified [REDACTED]

Strong possibility exists that [redacted] went to the [redacted] vicinity to consult with SNCC leaders re [redacted] possibly being an informant of some law enforcement agency in Miss., based on [redacted] receiving "misdirected letter".

Based on the above information, the Jackson Division, by letter dated 10/30/68, submitted a counterintelligence follow-up suggestion which involved the following:

- A. The placing of a long-distance phone call by pay phone at Canton, Miss., to SNCC [redacted] Office during which conversation would be made asking [redacted] to call one "CHARLIE" at Canton;
- B. The week after this call was made, phone call to be made from a pay phone in New York City to the New York SNCC Office wherein reference would be made to the previous call and the caller would say words to the effect that [redacted] should get in touch with CHARLIE's friend in New York as set up during the previous week."

These two calls would have the objective of further indicating that [redacted] was an informant for some law enforcement agency.

By letter dated 11/15/68, the Bureau approved the Jackson Division and New York Division making the above two phone calls.

By letter dated 11/12/68, New York Office advised that the SNCC telephone had been disconnected. SNCC's New York Office had no phone service as of that time.

By letter dated 11/20/68, to the Bureau with copies to Atlanta and New York, Jackson advised Atlanta of the foregoing information and asked them if the two phone calls mentioned above could possibly be made instead to some office or residence in Atlanta, Georgia, frequented by SNCC activists; it being noted that [REDACTED] frequents the Atlanta vicinity periodically.

As of the date of this letter, this matter is still pending..

IV. DEVELOPMENTS OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INTEREST

[REDACTED] graduated from [REDACTED] Since that time, he has tried to organize one Negro youth group in the Jackson area. The Jackson Division, through informants, determined the identities of leaders of this group and in interviewing these leaders, expressed to them [REDACTED] background and his true intentions regarding organizing Negro youth groups. As a result of these interviews with these leaders, this group completely severed all connections with [REDACTED] and told him he was not welcome at any of their meetings, functions, or activities. The youth group now has reverted back to its original purpose of assisting Negro youths to obtain better employment and educational opportunities on graduation from high school.

During the period since [REDACTED] graduation from college, he has been residing in the Jackson area. Jackson Agents have contacted each of his landlords and advised them of certain aspects of [REDACTED] past activities and his reputation in the Jackson vicinity as being a Negro extremist. Following these contacts with three of [REDACTED] landlords, he was asked to vacate the premises as they did not want any trouble at their properties and felt it would be better if he sought a residence elsewhere.

The Tougaloo College Political Action Committee (PAC) is a SNCC affiliated Negro student group at Tougaloo College.

JN 100-980

In May, 1968, a Jackson source provided the identities of all members of this student group. A large number of these members were interviewed during the Summer of 1968 while they were home on summer vacations. Sources report that these interviews had a very upsetting effect on the PAC organization and they felt that they had been betrayed by someone at Tougaloo College. Many of the members have limited their participation in PAC affairs since their interview by Agents during the Summer of 1968.

The above set forth emphatic denunciations of black nationalists, youth gangs, and other militants by JAMES BENTON PARSONS, Judge, Northern District of Illinois, along with concrete suggestions for combatting evils connected therewith.

As the Bureau is aware, approval was given for a high level counterintelligence program against the NOI by Bureau letter November 11, 1962, entitled, "NATION OF ISLAM IS-NOI." This program was initiated by Chicago and resulted in a nationwide counterintelligence program which showed fallacies and weaknesses of the NOI to the public. It was conducted on an extremely high level and avoided name calling, mud slinging, etc. This program continues but was curtailed in 1964 due to the defection of MALCOLM X LITTLE from the NOI.

Youngsters, instead of accepting today's troublemakers as idols, are searching for their own identification through personal accomplishment, the judge said.

He said the rejection of leaders appears complete, resulting from the failure of street gangs to translate on the political

He said a period of about 5 years when he has achieved and the death of his person said he said he had lost contact with people.

He said the opportunity for the last few months to be related with the people and I thank God have found that the living masses of people all right," the judge said.

A FURTHER exposure of the war and south side ghettos, representing hours of concentration and miles of tape recorded sessions with the people of all levels of income, education, and age, I found that the one impression that fastens most on me is that there is faith and confidence in the future. "Short-term leaders, momentary prophets of gloom and despair who have preached hatred and reprisals will vanish and will become as forgotten as the singers of the artless ditties which have plagued the airwaves.

"I found, for example, that with the great masses of our children there is no generation gap.

"What divides them from their elders easily yields to the sober efforts on the part of both to understand each other.

"THE ANTI-VIET Nam-labeled rebelliousness of white youth is speedily becoming old hat.

"The self-imposed segregationism of black nationalists is on its way out.

"These glib exploiters of disenfranchised people who act in the name of retribution, but in their personal private interest, are on the way out.

"The insincerity and self-centered purposes of Negro teachers who, subvert true racial interrelationship with symbols of black superstition is being discovered by the kids themselves.

"I know of a number of such teachers who made the mistake of having their children—even at the third grade level—memorize creeds and pledges of loyalty to the teachers themselves.

"YOUNGSTERS 9 TO 14 years old are beginning to discover that what they want is neither the ghetto nor undue emphasis upon racial pride. Rather, integration and a feeling of belonging to the total of the national picture.

"High school and college-age youngsters are beginning to look for meaningful inter-racial relations. Ambitious youths in their 20s, on the threshold of full manly responsibility, are beginning to accept the challenge of meeting the competitive world as a personal responsibility.

"They find they have more to gain by individual efforts than thru government assistance or mass demonstration.

"THERE IS A rebellion of the new youth against the aimlessness and the rebelliousness of the aging youth.

"Those who 2 or 3 years ago considered as old folks anybody over 30 are now fast approaching 30 themselves. They are being written off by the beginning teen-ager who discovers that they know more than their older brothers and sisters.

"What I have discovered is nothing new. It has been a new experience for me, for I had not thought to observe it.

"I am confident that we have a bright future, thanks to the energy of each new generation to push the one ahead of it out of the way."

WON'T CLEAN UP GHETTO

Judge Parsons Rips Tax Aid for Gangs

BY MICHAEL COKLEY

A Negro federal judge criticized the spending of tax funds which even indirectly aid black gangs, saying "this certainly is not the way to clean the ghetto."

Federal district Judge James Parsons said contributing money to these gangs, even if they are the only groups in the area with popular support, can lead to further lawlessness.

In an apparent criticism of the Woodlawn organization (W.O.) which operates in a slum neighborhood, Parsons said: "What we have seen in this area is a great travesty on the use of tax funds."

Leaders of the Blackstone Rangers gang were paid $100,000 from the Office of Economic Opportunity as part of a T.W.O. anti-gang project. Following a seasonal inquiry, the $100,000 grant was permitted to expire.

One of those paid was Fort, 21, a Ranger leader, who now is employed as a "youth coordinator" at $10,000 a year by Chicago, executive director of Kenwood-Oakland Community organization.

Parsons said Fort has "tremendous influence with the Negro blacks."

Another Ranger leader on the E. O. C. O. payroll is $10,000 a year is the Edward Boy. The boy comes from the Community Renewal Society, a Chicago group.

The chief administrator of the $1-million-dollar rehabilitation program run by the E. O. C. O. is a man with items of the urban glum and have adapted very well to the conditions there," he said.

Parsons recalled that when he first became a Scout 40 years ago, it was only for those who didn't need it. "This is not true now. Many of our boys need Scouting very badly," he said.

a criminal record dating back to 1950, which includes larceny, burglary, and narcotic violations: The Rev. Curtis Burrell, 38.)

Parsons' remarks followed a speech he gave last night to an annual fund-raising dinner sponsored by the Chicago area council of the Boy Scouts.

Parsons, a member of the Boy Scouts' national board of directors, had high praise for Scouting's efforts in the inner city.

"Scout leaders have gone into the 'ghetto' areas and are fighting the street gangs," he said.

In emphasizing the need for such efforts, Parsons said Scout leaders try to get to young ghetto youths about 8 or 9 years old.

"At this age they are beginning to feel the influence of the gang," he said. "If the Scouts can reach him first, it can mean the difference between a life of crime and one which will be productive to society."

Parsons had special praise for the efforts of one Scout district leader, Kimmie Davis, who has organized more than 60 Scout troops in Negro neighborhoods in the south side Oakland area.

"He recently recruited more than 200 boys in one night. It is men like Kimmie who make Scouting such a success," he said.

Parsons warned that the former image of the Boy Scouts as a sophisticated organization operating in small towns and suburbs was not suitable for the ghetto.

"I think the Scouting movement realizes the special prob-

It was pointed out to the Bureau that information relative to [REDACTED] and his NOI affiliation could discreetly be made available to executives of the [REDACTED] which company had given [REDACTED] now operating as the [REDACTED] It was pointed out that this action might preclude this company from becoming a financial support to the NOI and a possible future recruiting ground.

It was further pointed out that implementation of the plan to discreetly make this information available to the [REDACTED] executives could be accomplished by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has been most cooperative in the past and circumspect in handling matters of this nature.

By letter dated October 3, 1968, Bureau authority was granted to furnish data regarding [REDACTED]

2. Operations Being Effectuated

In relation to effectuating the above plan on [REDACTED] [REDACTED] advised that he had not observed the newspaper clipping regarding the establishment of the Hough Manufacturing Company, which appeared in the Plain Dealer, local daily newspaper, on August 28, 1968. An autostat copy of this newspaper article was made available to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was immediately interested and volunteered to make same information available to persons [REDACTED] knew to be in a position to do something about it. [REDACTED] indicated [REDACTED] was acquainted with [REDACTED] and understood that it was possible that the local NOI Temple might conceivably reap the entire benefits of the Warner & Swasey Company venture.

It was very evident from the interview [REDACTED] understood that the information could not be attributed to this Bureau, that it was being furnished on a confidential basis to [REDACTED] and any action [REDACTED] took would be voluntary.

3. Tangible Results

[REDACTED] as recontacted at which time [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] had conveyed the message to the proper authorities, but has not obtained any information as to what would be done about same. [REDACTED] stated that he was confident there would be a big change in the policy to prevent [REDACTED] or any NOI member to become a share holder in the new venture. [REDACTED] stated there was no doubt that the information was in the hands of those in a position to prevent it, but [REDACTED] did not expect to be advised as to exactly what change would be made.

[REDACTED] also apprised of an article appearing in the October 10, 1968 edition of "Time" magazine relative to assistance given the former C & B Machine Company by the Warner and Swasey Company of Cleveland. The article is set forth below:

"WHITE HELP. Some of the most promising new businesses have been initiated by white businessmen, drawn to the ghetto by mixed motives of social activism, self-protection, and profit.

"Warner and Swasey Company, the Cleveland machine-tool firm that has a reputation for conservatism, decided to help rebuild the city's riot-seared Hough section. This year, its executives persuaded ROBERT L. COLES, a Negro machinist and aviation-mechanics teacher, to ally his limping little C & B Machine Company with Warner and Swasey in a joint venture. Together they created the Hough Manufacturing Company, whose ten Negro workers labor over turrent lathes and milling machines. Warner and Swasey invested $250,000 to buy a three-story plant and provide operating capital. COLES got 200 shares (out of 2,000) in the new firm and became its president. Warner and Swasey has agreed to sell its majority interest gradually to Hough employees. Meantime, the big company helps COLES line up customers and has sub-contracted some of its work to him."

[REDACTED] under the arrangement made [REDACTED] to the executive body of Warner and Swasey [REDACTED] does not expect to be directly apprised of the results of this operation, however, should any information relative to this matter come to [REDACTED] attention [REDACTED] will immediately furnish same to the Cleveland FBI Office.

4. Developments of Counterintelligence Interest

CV 157-1189

It is felt counterintelligence measures will present themselves as a result of this situation since [REDACTED]

This is being followed closely to insure that information of this type which would serve to discredit and tarnish [REDACTED] image will be promulgated on a timely basis.

As a contributor to the Peace and Freedom Party I wish to state that it was obvious to me and my friends that Eldridge Cleaver of the Black Panther Party was a poor candidate selection for President of the U. At the end of this letter are sample copies of two separate communications which Chicago is recommending be utilized against [REDACTED]. The first is to be sent anonymously to four Chicago area newspaper reporters, all of whom have written columns investigative in nature regarding local type demonstration activities and/or the black student boycott itself. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] reporter who has written extensively in recent weeks regarding the black student boycott. It is anticipated that the contents of this communication to these reporters would stimulate an interest in [REDACTED] and possibly result in an interview with him where he could be confronted with portions of this information.

The second letter is to be sent to associates of [REDACTED] in the hope of compromising him among those individuals with whom he regularly associates in the course of his black nationalist activities. The question of homosexuality which is implied in both these communications is not considered one which normally would be of importance in the circles in which [REDACTED] moves, however, in view of his leadership role, and increasing emphasis upon black pride and masculinity, a question of public identification of a black leader as a homosexual might represent a considerable reflection on this image. It is also believed that the question of the possible informer status of [REDACTED] as indicated in the second communication, would be of a particular concern to those individuals who would receive this second communication.

These individuals are:

[REDACTED]

Each copy of both of these communications would be typed as an original.

These two letters, in the order as indicated previously would read as follows:

Dear Sir:

I've read some of your comments and articles about the demonstrations and the Chicago high school boycotts recently and I'm writing to you because of my concern over these things. I'm employed in the school system but no one seems to want to take any action about some of these young blacks who are causing all this turmoil.

Some teacher friends who know this [redacted] say he's got an interesting background [redacted] I understand, and just before school started went to [redacted] but the Government can't or won't do anything about him. He's never been in the service and people close to the boycott problem feel his interest in these young kids is no accident.

The papers are the only ones who seem interested. If the public knew who and what some of these people were, maybe it would help. You can ask him. If what I've heard isn't true, let [redacted] deny it. I'd like to sign my name but I'm in the middle in this.

Hopefully, a citizen

Dear black brother,

I know you know [redacted] I've been to his [redacted] and I know why he likes the young Black brothers down there. We don't need sissies or freaks for leaders. Some brothers on the west side say he's with the man cause he don't work, but he sure gets around. Maybe you can do something.

A Brother

The above are being provided the Bureau for consideration as a counterintelligence approach against [redacted] Chicago will take no action on the above but will await the Bureau's recommendation and comment prior to instituting any counterintelligence activity.

Militant, Radical Student Paper Assailed at WSCU

BY GLENN KENNEDY
First Edition

"They can say whatever they please, but they ought to learn to say it right," bellowed the last couple of years . . ."

Frank Gill, faculty adviser to Wayne State University's student newspaper, rufled on his pipe and shook his head.

He can speak authoritatively about the paper's past and immediately "spit" a hotbed of stuff only by exerting great control over a volcanic Irish temper, headed to boiling.

"THEY HAVE no integrity, no pride in what they produce, no idea what a newspaper is or how a newspaper functions," he said. "Like a year I've felt like I'm teaching in a class for mentally retarded children."

Wayne's Daily Collection, like hundreds of college newspapers in the past few years, has undergone radical change.

The Collection was established in 1918.

In October, 1967, the paper was changed to the South End by a hip, radical, white college freshman, Art Johnson, who had since left Wayne for the West Coast.

"WE WANT to make it with objective journalism, the first South End produced. The Collection changed in a way of its own production. We have no editorial discipline, just a collection. We have begun a search for our own identity."

That search is now a year old.

Art Johnson, the campus newspaper editor, has been and probably will be a controversial figure of opinion. He is the first to admit that he is a radical and that he is a white man.

Art Johnson, the editor of the South End, a black paper, has been called a "black" by the student body. Johnson, who is a white man, has been called a "black" by the student body.

Johnson says: "Our paper is for all friends."

ACCOMPLISHED, the paper has become a voice of violence, propaganda and distrust. A story wrapped in an editorial, the newspaper of 1957.

"Who is Richard M. Murphy? Is he the antagonist or the champion? We know that Murphy does have a position in the problems facing our country. It's just that you have to really squeeze him hard to get any answer."

—South End, Oct. 17, 1957

Recent issues of the South End have been the subject of much criticism and support of the paper. Unsettled and diverse voices of opinion have been heard, but the paper has been placed on the university and is charged with criticism of both aspects of the American educational process, criticism for the Graduate and public for Richard M. Murphy.

BUT THE TWO stories are written with an eagerness, with a zeal and reliance on the validity of their own way back to Richard M. Murphy. And they are received with four-letter words. That public elements of the university faculty and student body.

"Academicians have set on their scholarly eyes for years and talked about the way things SHOULD be, but left the working of the way things ARE, to those who are not in the line of vision. Where, possibly, when, have we been pushed because of it? Conditions must be changed now, and produced, and they must be changed by any means necessary."

—South End, Oct. 15, 1957

At a recent "open forum" held to discuss the function of the paper's student component, "You only point one point of view."

Mike Hamilton, managing editor of the South End, replied, "There are two points of view, of course. The right and the wrong. You wouldn't want me to point the wrong one, would you?"

That kind of flip reply and the attitude it reflects have become intolerable to many university administrators and other members of the community.

What a Circle, a WHOLE phrase, is usually used to refer to any entity. "The university," the paper editors have a matter of public relations then relations."

BUT GILL says, "You can't talk to them. They don't speak the same language. The previous editor talked to them and they were willing to come out for him. I was glad to see him go, but when this new one, Mike Watson, walked in, he had the same look of cool hatred in his eyes."

"November 3, 1957: The Sick Society will once again lift us by the end and send to the world its horribly deformed expression, filled with the effluence of intellect and political fanaticism. It is not, like if one responds rationally or irrationally."

—South End, Oct. 15, 1957

One day, by way of a letter, the paper was sent to the editor of the South End staff is that it is black.

The paper's major editors are Negro students and Black Panthers appear on the paper's masthead. The major stories regularly deal with Negro problems, crises and resolutions.

A WHITE student protected at the forum, "This is supposed to be a student newspaper, but you don't represent all the students, just the ones you're interested in."

Watson was unimpressed.

"The paper is devoted to the Black Revolution," he said. "If you want to understand it, you'd better be a party member, because it's the whole thing. It's not white, it's not black, it's a whole new thing, you've got to get it."

V. Sprague Hobbs, chairman of Wayne's Journalism Department, is as angry about the South End as the Black Panther, but he's been removed from the battle line.

At at most large universities, Wayne's official viewpoint is stated and administered by an administrative body. Journalism students may work on the paper, but so can others, and the department of journalism exercises no control over the paper's editorial policies or practices.

JOHN HENRICH, "The changes in the student newspaper at Wayne State University are the last phase of a temporary deterioration of the university's journalism. The militant new left has moved in and taken charge of many campuses, including ours."

"The traditional concept of journalism is being destroyed and the new concept is being replaced by a new concept. The new concept is a new concept of journalism."

The South End is financed through the Student Activities Budget of the university and it would be illegal for the Metro edition to use public funds from the South End. It is an onerous activity that also covers other campuses.

Another news publication at WESU is the Wayne Report, a newsletter-like weekly that first appeared Sept. 24, 1971, a successor to the Way, which was a faculty and staff house organ.

RAY BROWN, Director of Publications for WESU, said, "At one time the Metro was to drop its way of financing a third edition, but it was rejected early on by the South End. That idea was shot down by the Student Union. He didn't want any direct connection with the third publication. So we don't cover student activities, and our paper isn't considered student."

NOTE:

In relet, San Francisco submitted a proposed letter to be sent to Kathleen Cleaver, wife of Leroy Eldridge Cleaver, Minister of Information for the Black Panther Party (BPP), a black extremist organization. San Francisco advises that the material contained in its proposed letter is factual. The proposed letter submitted by San Francisco reads as follows:

"My dearest Kathleen,

Many people admire you for your beauty and intelligence. In addition the way you ran your campaign indicated that you are very efficient. The thing that disturbs many of your friends is the manner in which Eldridge treats you. He indicates to his friends that he no longer can stand you near him, and after you did so much for him while he was in prison. I also cannot understand why he has a group of 13 and 14 year old girls around him. He even takes some of them on trips with him. I cannot imagine anything that they do that you cannot do better. Your friends used to think that you loved your husband very much but now, I'm afraid, they are beginning to feel sorry for you because you are married to such a bum.

Your friend,

Mr. X"

Reference letter contained information to the [REDACTED] has said that the Black Panther Party (BPP) was being used by the New Left and because of this the Panthers cannot be trusted.

There appears as an enclosure to this letter an article which appeared in the "Columbia Spectator" on page 1, dated 10/15/68. The "Columbia Spectator" is the official newspaper of the undergraduate student at Columbia University.

This article indicates that generally speaking the students were disappointed with ELDRIDGE CLEAVER as a speaker and also doubted his leadership qualities.

It might be said that in accepting the invitation to speak at Columbia, CLEAVER felt that he would be addressing a New Left oriented audience who would be sympathetic to his viewpoint.

The NYO suggests that the Bureau and SF attempt to determine if we are able to compile other news articles etc. like this one from other colleges where CLEAVER has made speeches and then send them to the (BPP) headquarters to deride CLEAVER.

The Style of Cleaver

by PAUL STARR

William Audition was limited by Columbia students yesterday afternoon with the four o'clock. Some Hewitt Temple filled, and shortly after that the Lion's Den. Students also crowded into small rooms on the first floor of Harris South Hall where they could be able to hear. Upstairs, on the second floor, still others gathered in the suite belonging to radio station WHCT, which has a direct view into Hoffman.

The View From Here

By the time Eldridge Cleaver arrived, there were probably over two thousand students waiting to hear him.

The Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party and Presidential candidate of the People's National Party has a reputation for searing rhetoric—a reputation which may have been encouraged by the mass media. His speech yesterday certainly did not exhibit the speaking character some expected. Cleaver did not make his audience roll with anger by eloquently depicting the oppression and brutality of American society. In fact, he hardly talked politics at all.

There was one theme that dominated Cleaver's speech: the "pig." The pig is the ruler of the American society, and the solution to America's problems is to "kick the pig" him. The candidates to the year's elections are "pigs" standing in the way of a chance to sink to the "face of the people."

It was a speech whose essence was defiance. Cleaver, naughting to offer the student who heard him yesterday but ridicule for things they despise and adolescent evil-ness for things they detest. Students laughed; they were not stirred with rage. At one point, Cleaver challenged Ronald Reagan to a duel with any weapon Reagan chooses, including marshmallows.

For students who have seen powerful and intelligent black radicals like Jesse Jackson of Chicago, Cleaver must have been a disappointment. As one student said yesterday, he is the black version of J. Edgar Hoover. Like Hoffman, Cleaver is not the leader of a political movement. He is the leader of the political expression of a cultural phenomenon.

What Cleaver had in common with his audience yesterday was the contempt in which they both hold the existing leadership of this country. Their rapport came not so much from a coincidence of convictions as of emotions. Contempt has often been a powerful social force, but in American politics it has never reached a overwhelming proportions that it has reached in this election year.

For the emotions which Cleaver crystallizes in the word

Style of Contempt

"pig" go beyond the boundaries of radical politics. The contempt for Hubert Humphrey and Richard Nixon as men is widespread; even more so is the contempt for the business of George Wallace. The art of politics in the United States has taken on a noxious cast, which not even an end of the Vietnam War can dispel.

Enclosed herewith is a transcription of ELDRIDGE CLEAVER's speech on October 2, 1968, at the Symposium on Racism in America held at Sacramento State College, Sacramento, California, from September 27, 1968, to October 4, 1968.

One copy was previously sent the Bureau on October 16, 1968, under the dual caption of "LEROY ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, RM-BPP", and "SYMPOSIUM, Racism in America, Sacramento State College, Sacramento, California, 9/27/68 - 10/4/68, RM".

Sacramento proposes to anonymously send copies of this speech to presidents of local Parent-Teachers Associations (PTAs), members of the local school board, as well as high school principals, presidents, and/or secretaries of the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, Optimists, and #20-30 Clubs.

As the Bureau has pointed out, this mailing could result in bringing pressure to bear upon college administrators to prevent CLEAVER's appearing on campuses. In addition, members of the Rotary, Lyons, and other clubs mentioned above, come from all walks of life and Sacramento observes that these clubs could well make CLEAVER a subject of one of their complete programs inasmuch as many of their children could be exposed to his obscenities.

Sacramento feels that getting this mailing out immediately is of utmost importance and is therefore preparing a master so that it can be run off as soon as Bureau authority is received. //

Sacramento suggests the following cover page be mailed with this speech:

Attached hereto is a complete transcription of ELDRIDGE CLEAVER's speech given at Sacramento State College on October 2, 1968. CLEAVER is the Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party, headquartered at Oakland, California. Is this what you want your children exposed to???????

Sacramento will purchase commercial envelopes for this mailing and will post them locally.

Sacramento would like to make one more observation, namely that a similar mailing could well be made in other cities in California, as well as in other states where the Black Panther Party is known to be in existence. This mailing, however, could not be handled by Sacramento because proper facilities for doing so are not available. // who are active in various Black groups in the area. Their consensus of opinion was that the flyer was prepared by "white

A Black Liberator jumped up, tore the picture from his hand, and a very brief scuffle ensued. The Black Liberators immediately left.

• While the above incident may not be directly attributed to the flyer mailing it is very likely that it was a contributing factor.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] while they are satisfied that the actual leadership of the Zulu 1200's did not prepare the flyer they are not certain that some of Zulu members did not do so. [REDACTED] there has been plenty of "talk on the streets" regarding the flyer and most Negroes are unconvinced that the Black Liberators and the Zulu 1200's are not feuding, despite the protests of their officers in the newspapers.

An article relating to the flyer merited headlines in the St. Louis Sentinel, a weekly Negro newspaper with a large circulation, and it was also referred to in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Copies of both articles have been enclosed for the Bureau.

Both articles added greatly to dissemination which the flyer received. Not only was the flyer quoted but also the articles explained some of the points made, and in so doing, tended to add credence to the complaints against the Black Liberators in the flyer.

This division will be alert to logical follow-up action in this matter and if a potential circumstance is noted Bureau authority will be requested for logical action.

The Liberators' apparently softened position toward whites was attacked last week in a blue pamphlet being circulated through Negro areas of the city. The pamphlet compared the militancy of the Liberators unfavorably with that of the Zulu 1200s, another Negro group that recently severed its ties with the Mid-City Community Congress.

Feud Denied

Members of both the Liberators and the Zulus have denied that the organizations are feuding.

The pamphlet said the Liberators were run by "white honkies" and the Zulus were run "by blacks, for blacks and with blacks." The pamphlet described the leadership of the Liberators as "Illinois Negroes who don't give a damn" and said the uniforms of the Liberators make them look like "honkie truck drivers and motor cycle cats."

Liberators, Zulus Say All Is Love

A Black Power war between the Black Liberators and the Zulu 1200's appeared above the surface in the form of unsigned pamphlets last Monday, but both militant groups denied Wednesday that they are at odds.

"It's a plot to keep black people apart and get them to fight each other," a spokesman for the Black Liberators said.

"Both groups are fighting for the same thing, and both work together," a member of the Zulus said Wednesday.

A white minister considered a radical who speaks out for Negro rights also charged there is a plot to keep black people separated.

Black People Choose

The most explosive piece was mailed out through hand-addressed envelopes. It was titled, "Black People Choose," at the top and finished with a shield and "Black Power" at the bottom.

On one side it praised the Zulu 1200's as proud and black with eight points in their favor, and on the other side it denounced the Black Liberators as run by "white honkies" with eight points against them.

The Zulus, it said, are "run by blacks, for blacks, with blacks," born and raised and loyal to St. Louis, helping local black youth, support and upgrade black African culture and dress as "proud black Africans who respect all black men and women." It called the Zulus "black, strong and proud" who "ask nothing from white honkies."

On the other hand it says the Black Liberators are run by "white honkie ministers," has "Illinois Negroes who don't give a damn" as members, are loyal to outside groups, dress like "honkie truck drivers and motorcycle cats" and "cry in honkie federal court that police are harassing them." It also criticized the Liberators for working out of St. Stephens Episcopal church on Park and for working with whites.

White Minister Talks

The Rev. William Matheus, a militant white minister at St. Stephens, called the Liberators a noble group seeking to "create black dignity" and "get their thing together." He said the Liberators are free to "utilize the facilities of the church" because they do not have the finances and staff to do all the work needed from their office at 2810 Easton ave.

Recently Charles (Chuck) Koen, prime minister of the Liberators participated in a public black forum at St. Stephens, which has white ministers. The Liberators also conducted a recruiting drive on the south side from that church.

A Liberator spokesman agreed that the Liberators do use church facilities, but declared that whites have nothing to do with the administration of the Black Liberators.

Matheus added, "I doubt seriously that the Zulus had anything to do with this vicious tract. After all, the Zulus work from the Mid-City Community Congress and worked with Webster college students in campaigns for housing blacks."

Ocie Pastard, executive director of the Mid-City Community Congress, where both militant groups got their start, said the Zulus had nothing to do with the pamphlet. He added:

"Somebody wants these two black groups to start fighting. There have been several attempts to break up the good relationships between the two groups. Both groups were smart enough to take it intelligently."

The pamphlet came out after a big weekend for the Liberators during which Phil Hutchings, national chairman of SNCC (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee) announced at a public rally that the Liberators along with other "black" groups such as the Black Panthers were becoming affiliates of SNCC. He also noted that Koen had been named a national official of the affiliated groups.

Re San Diego letter to the Bureau 10/4/68.

ADMINISTRATIVE

The CI Program as it relates to the Black Nationalist - Hate Group activities was temporarily curtailed in the San Diego Division due to conditions which are known to the Bureau. The situation which created this curtailment now appears to be resolved and an increase in counterintelligence action from the San Diego Division can be anticipated at an early date.

I. OPERATIONS UNDER CONSIDERATION

A request to the Bureau is being prepared to capitalize on a situation which appears to be a power struggle between US and the Black Panther Party (BPP). A request for an anonymous letter being sent by an anonymous black businessman in the San Diego area praising the BPP and encouraging the takeover of the US group by the BPP is being prepared. A letter advocating the above takeover will be sent to [redacted] of the BPP in San Diego; and one to [redacted] of the BPP in San Diego. The letters directed to the BPP members will refer to the US members as a bunch of cultural Uncle Toms and indicate that they are in fact hurting the black power struggle movement.

A similar letter will be directed to [redacted] US organization in San Diego. This letter will indicate that the BPP is destroying all of the constructive measures thus far taken by the US group toward racial equality and advocate the taking over of the BPP by US in order to preclude additional harm being done to the black people by the BPP.

When the above letters are finalized, they will be sent to the Bureau for approval.

II. OPERATIONS BEING EFFECTED

The operations which have previously been authorized telephonically by the Bureau have been effected.

No results, to date, have been realized from them.

A list of names of prominent Negro businessmen in the San Diego area has been prepared and forwarded to the New York Office in conjunction with the mailing of the article written by Mrs. CATHERINE BASIE which appeared in the "New York Times" on 9/18/68. It is anticipated that these businessmen will be receiving the above article in the immediate future.

III. TANGIBLE RESULTS

[REDACTED] does not appear to be in a leadership capacity of the US group any longer. This might possibly be attributed to the fact that he has been interviewed by the FBI. He still continues to make several speeches and talks throughout the San Diego area but does not appear to have any direct leadership capacity in the US group.

IV. DEVELOPMENTS OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INTEREST

At the present time there appears to be a power struggle going on between the factions of the US Group and the BPP in San Diego, California.

[REDACTED] the BPP in San Diego is reportedly going to discontinue his employment at the [REDACTED]

This anonymous letter criticizes [REDACTED] an RNA officer who allegedly is using RNA funds for personal expenses. This has been a matter of discussion with enough RNA members so as to protect our sources. Criticism of leaders of black nationalist extremist groups, such as the RNA, for misusing funds, is an effective method of neutralizing these leaders. Since this is an anonymous letter, there is no possibility of embarrassment to the Bureau.

(BLACK PANTHER PARTY)

ReBulet, 10/30/68.

During July, 1968, there was a great deal of friction between SNCC and the BPP in the NY area. Much bickering took place and some veiled threats were leveled by members of both groups.

Since September, 1968, the break between SNCC and the BPP appears severe and perhaps final. At the present time, there is absolutely no working agreement between these two groups in NYC. In fact, the entire thought of cooperation between the two groups in NYC is a dead issue. Nobody talks about it at meetings, it is just taken for granted.

In answer to your specific questions as defined in referenced letter it may be pointed out that :

1. As previously stated cooperation between SNCC and the BPP in the NY area is at the present time a "dead issue", therefore, it is not felt that the distribution of a slogan would have any appreciable effect.

2. BPP recruiting has been on the decrease in this area for some time. In fact, they have just closed their Brooklyn office. Such a slogan would probably annoy the Panthers but might have little effect on recruiting.

3. The NYO has no available news sources who are in a position at the present time to publish an item to the effect that the SNCC is circulating this slogan in a campaign against the BPP. However, the agent who handles the contact with the NY papers mentioned that he will keep this request in mind and perhaps something may be done along these lines in the future.

Generally, the NYO feels that the slogan is good but the timing, at least for the NY area may be a little late. The NYO will of course place into effect any counter-intelligence device recommended by the Bureau.

Authority requested to authorize Sacramento Division to anonymously mail transcripts of speech of Leroy Eldridge Cleaver delivered October 2, 1968, at Sacramento State College, Sacramento, California, to academic related organizations, officials, and fraternal organizations. Objective is to bring pressure to bear upon academic administrators to deny Cleaver a forum for future diatribes of this nature. Cleaver is Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party, a black extremist organization.

The speech in question is similar to a series of lectures delivered by Cleaver at various colleges throughout the country. In these speeches, Cleaver intimates the advocacy of violence and revolution. His ideas are advanced through the medium of obscene and vulgar words that demean the common standard of decency. Some of the educational institutions before which Cleaver spews his demagoguery are small and/or religious affiliated institutions. It is likely that if parents, selected college alumni, and civic minded groups were aware of the contents of Cleaver's speeches, they would bring pressure to bear upon colleges to deny him a platform.

If approved, Sacramento will be instructed in attached letter to anonymously mail copies of this speech to local parent-teacher associations, members of local school boards, high school principals, college alumni officials, and officials of the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, Optimists, and similar groups. A cover page will be mailed with the speech which will identify it as a speech of Cleaver's and a statement to the effect that this is what children are exposed to at college. The mailing will be handled in such a manner that it cannot be traced to the Bureau as the source.

RECOMMENDATION:

The Nation of Islam (NOI) Mosque No. 32 continues to be the only black nationalist organization within the Phoenix Division. The only change in this organization is that there has been an increase in the membership as a result of NOI personnel transferring in from other states.

The Phoenix Division believes the above organization continues to have a lack of propensity for violence at this time.

The Phoenix Division (1) has no counterintelligence operation under consideration at this time; (2) the only operation that has been effected is the program implemented to prevent CASSIUS CLAY from fighting on an Indian reservation per PX letter to Bureau, 10/1/68; (3) this program resulted in CLAY being denied permission to fight in Arizona; and (4) there are no further developments of counterintelligence interest to report.

Re Bureau letter to Albany dated 3/12/68, entitled
"BLACK NATIONALIST MOVEMENT INTERVIEWS WITH SUBJECTS AFFILIATED

The Junta of Militant Organizations (JOMO) was organized in St. Petersburg, Fla., on June 22, 1968. Its publication, the "Burning Spear", has become increasingly militant since June, 1968, on occasions imploring members of the Negro community to arm themselves, and directing derogatory, as well as obscene, remarks concerning city officials and in particular, St. Petersburg PD. One edition of the periodical indicates that black people have no responsibility, either moral or legal, to support the framework of American Government. Several individuals reportedly closely associated with this organization, have been arrested during racial strife in St. Petersburg.

The impetus behind JOMO is However, Tampa is of the opinion that supplemental coverage of the activities of JOMO is desirable. Reports continue to circulate that [REDACTED] and it is felt that upon his return to St. Petersburg, the activities and the membership of JOMO will increase.

Thus Tampa concludes that one technique which may offset some of these anticipated increased JOMO activities, would be a series of interviews with selected members and associates. Two objectives would result from these interviews. Tampa will be able to seek additional penetration of JOMO and to evaluate each of the persons being interviewed for his potential as a racial informant. Even if the interviews do not result in recruiting racial informants, it is felt that the interviews will serve to harass and bewilder the other members of JOMO. It should be noted that during the Summer of 1968, when Tampa was interviewing one of the members whose parents had accompanied him to the Resident Agency in St. Petersburg [REDACTED] the Resident Agency, speaking to a Special Agent with whom he is familiar, and complained bitterly about the Bureau interviewing this member.

Accordingly, Tampa recommends that the following individuals be interviewed and Bureau authority is requested to commence speaking to these individuals:

It should be noted that a local television station, with the knowledge of the Bureau, has prepared a documentary type program in which a number of JOMO members have been interviewed. The program has not been shown as yet, and none of the above individuals appears in the film.

It is not felt that any of the above interviews will result in any embarrassment to the Bureau. Both [REDACTED] have been spoken to on other occasions without incident. The interviews of all the individuals will be conducted at an auspicious place to avoid any possibility of embarrassment. The interviews will be conducted by two mature and experienced Agents.

furnishing the contents thereof to friendly newspaper contacts. The article advocates that Negroes obtain their just rights through nonviolent means and by following the precepts of the late Martin Luther King and implementing the recommendations of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders (Kerner Report). This article has a mild impact and would probably have beneficial effects if more widely distributed in the Pittsburgh area; however, it is not believed to be of such importance that it should be given nationwide publicity. Upon receipt of the necessary data requested above, Pittsburgh will be authorized to bring to the attention of a friendly newspaper contact the contents of referenced article. However, Pittsburgh will be instructed that the friendly newspaper contact should obtain permission to reprint and disseminate the article from the Greater Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce and that this task should not be undertaken by the Pittsburgh Division as recommended in relet.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau is a copy of the publication, "Greater Pittsburgh," dated November, 1968, which is published by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Pittsburgh.

[REDACTED]

The Pittsburgh Office believes that this article offers potential for utilization in captioned program, and it is being forwarded for the Bureau's consideration therewith. As one possibility, offices participating in the Counterintelligence Program could be solicited for the identity of individuals to whom reprints of the article could be sent. This could be handled in a manner similar to the manner in which the article from the 9/18/68 issue of the "New York Daily News," concerning the Black Panther Party, is now being handled as set out in Bureau letter dated 10/29/68.

Another possibility is for the Bureau to furnish the article to an appropriate newspaper columnist of national prominence with the suggestion that it could be utilized in a column concerning racial violence.

A third possible use of the article would be to furnish it to a reliable local Pittsburgh newspaper contact with the suggestion that a wider circulation of the article in the Pittsburgh area would be desirable.

This matter has not been discussed with the Greater-Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, but this office has excellent liaison with that organization and no difficulty would be expected in obtaining permission to reprint and disseminate the article. It is believed the Chamber of Commerce would be in a position to do this, although they have not been approached in this regard.

No action will be taken concerning this counter-intelligence action until Bureau authority is received. Comments of the Bureau concerning this matter are requested.

ReHOlet, 9/3/68.

1. Operations Under Consideration

Houston Office previously considering a specific intelligence operation against [REDACTED] utilizing informants to accuse [REDACTED] of having other women and misusing NOI funds in connection with his travels to Dallas, Texas to conduct NOI meetings. Recently [REDACTED] has not been going to Dallas but has been attempting to keep [REDACTED] under control. [REDACTED] is currently experiencing many problems within the NOI as well as considerable problems as regards his leaders. It is felt that through the effective handling of NOI informants this unrest and disruption will be continued causing [REDACTED] considerable problems.

2. Operations Being Effectuated

No specific counterintelligence operation is currently being effectuated against the black nationalist-hate groups in Houston other than to continue to capitalize on the chaos currently going on in the NOI organization. Several officers, who in the past were considered to be firm NOI members have been demoted as a result of the problems in the NOI and other members are experiencing difficulties with money in that they are accused of not paying their regular dues while others who are known not to be paying dues have been carried on the rolls as being paid up. It is apparent that the bookkeeping system in the NOI currently is in a mixed up state and through the informants it is anticipated that the problems evolving from this mix-up of the records will be brought out more in the future. While this is not a specific Bureau approved counterintelligence operation, it is felt that the proper handling of the NOI informants in this regard is causing disruption and chaos within the NOI.

3. Tangible Results

--- The results of the counterintelligence action taken against the NOI by the Houston Office has resulted in top officers being demoted and chaos among the members because of various accusations about non-payment of regular dues and assessments by the members. This has caused considerable consternation within the entire NOI organization. It is felt that these problems will continue and increase through appropriate informant handling.

4. Development of Counterintelligence Interest

Other than the fact that several old-time NOI officers were [REDACTED] and the fact that NOI members are being wrongly accused at this time for non-payment of dues and assessments, nothing of particular interest from a counterintelligence standpoint has been noted in the NOI during the past quarter. It is felt, however, that with the coming Savior's Day Convention in Chicago in February and the fact that ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has [REDACTED] instructed each NOI member to contribute $75.00 towards this convention whether he goes to the convention or not appears to present another item which can be attacked by appropriate informant handling.

The entire NOI operation in Houston has developed into a big money collecting operation which apparently benefits [REDACTED] and the NOI headquarters in Chicago and because informants have been appropriately instructed, some members are beginning to realize the benefits gained from being a NOI member are not as they are presented by [REDACTED]. This matter continues to be followed on a daily basis and in the event a specific counterintelligence proposal presents itself, Bureau approval will be requested.

This communication is being directed to the Bureau prior to the Buded of 12/1/68 in view of the fact that case agent will be attending in-service during this period.

ReBulet to BA, 10-21-68.

The following are suggested ways in which it is felt the Chamber of Commerce or other socially conscious organizations may contribute to counter violence on the part of black extremists. It is felt these suggestions will encourage the disadvantaged in both black and white communities to resist and deny the appeal and advice of extremists that violence is the only means to cure social ills:

1. Make known to people in ghetto areas the Chamber's interest in making, through its industrial development programs, opportunities to encourage the development and establishment of Negro businesses and employment of qualified Negroes.
2. Make known to Negro businesses and social organizations at all responsible levels that the Chamber's liaison service with other agencies are available to them as well as to influential and dominant groups in white communities.
3. Make known to people in ghetto areas the Chamber's interest in promoting, through their liaison with educational institutions, educational programs for both the adults and youths to qualify these persons for better employment with increased pay, resulting in improved standards of living.

5. Make known to people in ghetto areas the Chamber's interest in promoting prelegislative conferences with appropriate legislators to aid in the adoption of Government programs to encourage residents of blighted and disadvantaged areas to organize and participate in improving their areas of residences and businesses.

ReBulet to Baltimore dated 10/21/68.

[REDACTED]

The Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce has for sometime been of the philosophy that it should endeavor to make some constructive effort to improve racial relations and to improve the climate in the ghetto areas. It was felt that crime and law enforcement was, to a considerable extent, directly related to race relations and tensions.

[REDACTED] during the Pittsburgh Chamber's initial consideration of how best their agency could constructively contribute to the general situation, he expressed the opinion the problem was similar to the efforts of this country to aid underdeveloped countries. The similarity being that in this case the aid is needed in underdeveloped areas of our country. A substantial factor in the aid to underdeveloped countries has been the private business factor, which [redacted] felt also applied to the underdeveloped areas of our country. Since the Chamber of Commerce is business-oriented, [redacted] that the Chamber make efforts through business to improve the climate of the ghettos and thereby improve race relations which would, in turn, work to the advantage of law enforcement.

[redacted]

The Pittsburgh Chamber formed a Human Resources Development Committee. The purpose of this committee was to provide a means of communication between the Opportunities Industrial Center and the business-industrial sector. For this purpose, the Chamber organized an Industrial Advisory Committee to the Opportunities Industrial Center. Recognizing the need for the business sector's more inclusive interest in the economic developments of the area, as related to the minority group, the Chamber asked the Industrial Advisory Committee to the Opportunities Industrial Center to accept a dual role as also the Chamber's Human Resources Development Committee.

The projects undertaken by the Human Resources Development Committee are as follows:

1. Business Management Advisory Corps

There had been an expressed viewpoint that black-owned and/or operated businesses seemed to lack managerial know-how. The Chamber felt that experienced businessmen could be drawn upon as volunteers to advise and counsel the owners and managers of black stores and firms of accepted management methods and procedures. The use of this resource will depend on the need for the services as expressed by the prospective recipient.

2. Pittsburgh Industrial Show

The sponsors of the Pittsburgh Industrial Show, the Purchasing Management Association of Pittsburgh, traditionally makes a booth available to the Chamber of Commerce free of charge. During the 1968 show, the Chamber felt it could best serve the business interests of the corporate sector by having its booth used by black-owned and/or operated firms which produce articles or supply services of interest to corporate buyers. Difficulty was encountered in locating black-owned businesses; however, some were located and did exhibit with most satisfactory results.

3. Special Impact Program

This is a program in which the U. S. Labor Department provides funds to create employment for minority groups by promoting the expansion of existing industry into poverty areas or establishing new businesses in these areas. The committee has been considering the possibility of using the Black Management Advisory Corps, referred to above, to provide direct, short-term management guidance. In this connection also the committee has considered securing as instructors in a formal educational program to develop black management personnel, those Negroes who have already attained responsible positions in area firms.

4. Survey of experience of area employers regarding various private and Government organizations in the field of minority group employment.

The committee has designed a questionnaire to obtain a reading on a confidential basis of individual experience by large as well as small firms. The questionnaire has been distributed, but only limited returns have been received to date. It is intended that the results will serve to determine the extent to which an information center should be conducted by the Chamber as to subsidies available and application procedures involved. It is planned also that this questionnaire will probably furnish other information of value, the specific nature of which is not yet apparent.

5. Directory of Pittsburgh Agencies Oriented to the Urban Crises

The committee is conducting a survey to determine the interest in a directory of this type.

6. Cooperation of the Chamber with a local television station in a continuous showing of seven urban crises type films to selected community leaders.

A local television station prepared seven one-half hour programs as a public service on the urban situation. It was felt that these films could be additionally used, other than for television time, in that they would provide an opportunity for a meeting of community leaders involved with the racial problems and urban crises. This meeting proved most beneficial.

From the above, it is apparent that the Pittsburgh Chamber has a definite, active program geared to its interests and capabilities. It is not apparent at this time how specifically the Pittsburgh Chamber could successfully be utilized in a counterintelligence effort; however, this possibility is not being ruled out.

Information copies are furnished to designated offices inasmuch as it is believed this information may be of possible interest.

Set out below are Boston responses to the five inquiries made in referenced letter.

1. It is believed that the technique suggested would affect BPP-SNCC relations in the Boston Division, since the BPP has appeared to have taken over SNCC operations in Boston. SNCC appeared to become inactive towards the end of June, 1968, at which time the BPP first appeared. [REDACTED] of SNCC [REDACTED] BPP and SNCC appears to have become a paper organization. 2. It is believed that the slogan "Panthers are pinheads" would probably have some affect in recruitment by the BPP in Boston because of the ridicule it would direct towards the BPP.
3. Boston believes it would be able to have such an item as suggested in referenced letter published in Boston papers through use of this Office's newspaper contacts.
4. As mentioned above, Boston SNCC has been inactive since June, 1968, and as far as can be determined, exists in name only. Therefore, SNCC could be utilized in circularizing the suggested slogan.
5. If this slogan were printed in the form of bumper stickers, it is believed they could be placed on cars in the ghetto area unobstrusively in the early morning hours and such stickers could also be placed in areas of the ghetto where they could be prominently displayed. The slogan might be more effective if worded, "SNCC says 'Panthers are pinheads!'"

The PFP is registered in the state of California as a political party in the 1968 national election.

ELDRIDGE CLEAVER is Minister of Information for the BPP.

The Bureau is in possession of a characterization of the BPP.

Deputy Chairman in charge of recruiting BPP, in a speech at Oakland in September, 1968, admonished the black brothers of the BPP to be tolerant of white honkies. He said he particularly had in mind the white honkies of the PFP. He said a coalition of the EPP and the white honkies of the PFP was necessary at that time, but when the BPP gets on top they will drop the white honkies.

Therefore, it does not appear that any effort to promote distrust of the PFP or any other white organization in the eyes of the BPP would be particularly successful since the BPP appears to have a deep distrust, and in fact hatred, of all whites and white organizations.

RE: PROPOSED COUNTERINTELLIGENCE OPERATION TO CAUSE FRICTION BETWEEN EPP AND STUDENT
NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC)
THROUGH THE USE OF THE SLOGAN, "ACCORDING TO ZOOLOGISTS, THE MAIN DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A PANTHER AND OTHER LARGE CATS IS THAT THE

PANTHERS ARE PINHEADS.

Previous investigation has clearly indicated there is no active SNCC organization within the San Francisco Division.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] there is no SNCC organization whatsoever in the San Francisco-Oakland area, and there is no SNCC activity in the San Francisco Bay area at the present time.

The five points mentioned in Bulet dated 10/30/68 are commented on hereinafter:

(1) There are no EPP-SNCC relations in the San Francisco Division since there is no SNCC organization.

(2) It is doubtful that the use of this slogan would materially decrease EPP recruiting in the San Francisco-Oakland area since there is no militant Black Nationalist organization competing for recruits in this area.

(3) Since there is no active SNCC organization within the San Francisco Division, it is felt that such a slogan should not appear in news media or otherwise during the early days of such a program. However, if such a slogan is published or otherwise promulgated in other areas of the country, there are news media sources within the San Francisco Division who will pick it up and report it.

[REDACTED]

SF 157-601

(4) See paragraph 1.

(5) It is suggested that the release of such a slogan in several parts of the country at the same time would look suspicious, however, if the slogan could be presented initially by a recognized writer or reporter and then picked up and reported nation-wide, it would appear more authentic.

Personnel familiar with racial matters within the San Francisco Division are of the opinion that the proposed slogan has merit. It is catchy, easily remembered, humorous to some people, and has a very derogatory connotation as far as the BPP is concerned.

The matter of the circularization of the slogan referred to in re Bureau letter, and its possible effect upon the Black Panther Party - SNCC relations in the Atlanta Division were discussed with [REDACTED]

At the outset [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is no BPP activity in Atlanta, and the fact SNCC is bordering on bankruptcy is so widely known, the distribution of any type literature or slogans which obviously would be expensive, would immediately be received by anyone interested in BPP/SNCC relations as coming from a source outside the SNCC organization.

In view of the absence of a BPP movement in Atlanta, at this time, it is not believed any worthwhile purpose would be served in the circularization of literature as suggested in re Bureau letter in the Atlanta area.

Sources are alert for the possibility of the BPP movement establishing itself in Atlanta, and upon development of positive information, the Bureau and San Francisco Office will be advised.

OWENS had implied that his membership in the NRA gave a legitimate aspect to the firearms practice he was holding on 9/22/68.

As a counterintelligence measure, it is recommended that the Bureau authorize Washington Field Office to contact the NRA, 1600 Rhode Island Avenue, Washington, D.C., and determine if OWENS is in fact, a member of that organization. In the event he is a current member of the NRA, one of the two copies of the enclosed newspaper articles being furnished to Washington Field Office, should be furnished to the NRA with the suggestion that the organization may want to consider whether to continue OWENS as a member of NRA, in view of his propensity for violence as indicated in these newspaper articles.

It is believed desirable for our purposes that OWENS lose his membership in the NRA, since if he holds any future firearms training sessions of any type, he will not be able to impute legitimacy thereto as a result of his NRA membership.

No action should be taken concerning this counterintelligence action until Bureau authority is received.

Homewood Patrolled By Blacks

Unarmed Men Seek to Prevent More Violence

Black leaders in the strife-torn Homewood-Brushton district sent out civilian patrols last night to guard against the recurrence of violence in which two men were wounded Tuesday night.

First reports were that the so-called "vigilante" patrols would be armed. Later it was announced by Thomas

Pryor that the civilian groups would be unarmed and would patrol the area as a defensive measure.

Earlier reports that they planned to be armed brought stern warnings from David W. Craig, public safety director, and Police Inspector Iggy Borkowski that persons carrying pistols or loaded rifles and shotguns would be arrested.

FAT Protests Woundings

Meanwhile, Pryor, chairman of the Forever Action Together (FAT) group, which is planning the patrols, lodged strong protests on the wounding of two men by police at the Black Power office at 715 N. Homewood Ave. shortly before midnight Tuesday.

Pryor denied that the wounded men—David Owens, 32, of 7218 Race St., Homewood, and Carl Murphy, 32, of 7741 Fleury Way, Brushton — fired on police.

Borkowski, however, said that when officers found the men on the roof of a building at 716 N. Homewood Ave., Owens and Murphy, armed with a rifle and shotgun, fired at the officers and fled.

According to police, the two were chased to the doorway of the Black Power office where Owens allegedly pointed a rifle at Patrolman Larry Watson. Police said Patrolmen Watson and Earl Stewart then opened fire on Owens and Murphy, wounding them several times.

The shooting was followed by a raid on the Black Power office in which police reported seizing a large amount of ammunition and other equipment and arrested three men.

Huff Urges Calm

The shooting and raid occurred shortly before midnight Tuesday, only a few hours after Constable Clarence (Larry) Huff, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Community Pride, had urged residents of the area to remain calm in face of problems raised by the slaying of a neighborhood grocer on Monday and a bombing which injured 15 Negroes early Tuesday.

At another meeting, reportedly called by the organization known as Together, the plan for vigilante patrols first was proposed. William (Bowie) Haden, one of the chief speakers at the meeting, said however, that the patrol plan had been taken over by the Action Together group.

About 1:25 a.m. yesterday—less than two hours after the wounding of Owens and Murphy—police arrested two men who allegedly were walking along Homewood Avenue carrying loaded shotguns in zipper bags.

In a disturbance last night in the Homewood area two youths were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct and carrying deadly weapons.

Richard Grandstaff, 18, of 611 Seagirt St., Brushton, was held under $1,000 bond pending a hearing and a 16-year-old youth was sent to Juvenile Court. Police said the youths were riding up and down the street shouting at other motorists. A large crowd collected. Officers said they found the youths were carrying knives.

Owens and Murphy both are listed in satisfactory condition at Pittsburgh Hospital. Each was ordered placed under $10,000 bond on charges of intent to kill, pointing and carrying deadly weapons and conspiracy.

Magistrate Harry B. Fitzgerald set bond at $10,000 each for the two men arrested for carrying shotguns. They were charged with violation of the firearms act, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct.

Hearing Thursday

They were Calvin C. Skinner, 21, 213 Burrows St., Terrace Village, and Samuel W. Jennings, 21, of 1067 Crestline St., Brushton. Their hearing was set for Thursday.

Bond was set at $1,000 each for the three men seized in the Black Power office. They were charged with conspiracy. James Davis, 27, of 7637 Mulford St., posted $1,000 bond pending a hearing next Monday.

The other two, Curtis Tucker, 23, of 6919 Frankstown Ave., and Ray Wright, 22, of 830 Inwood St., both of Homewood, were committed to the County Jail in default of bond.

Owens and Murphy also are scheduled for a hearing Monday.

Also facing hearing on Monday is Walter Webb, 19, of 7562 Monticello St., arrested with two younger youths on charges of possessing a firebomb and conspiracy. Webb was jailed in default of $10,000 bond and the younger suspects were sent to Juvenile Court.

Remain Calm, Blacks Urged In Homewood

New Violence Erupts; Haden Bares Plans For Vigilante Units

Despite urgings that residents of the Homewood-Brushton area remain calm following a bombing which wounded 15 Negroes, new violence broke out in the district last night.

Shortly before midnight two men were wounded in a sudden flareup among a group at Homewood Avenue and Bennett Street, not far from the scene of the bombing which occurred early yesterday.

The victims of last night's shooting were David Owens, 32, of 7213 Race St., Homewood, and Carl Murphy, 32, of 724 Fleury Way, Brushton.

Owens was shot in the left thigh and hip and Murphy in the left shoulder, thigh and heel.

The two accused of the shooting were arrested after they came out of the Black Power office on Homewood Avenue, police said. Police then raided the office and arrested three more men after they found a rifle with a telescopic sight, shotguns, knives, walkie-talkies and other equipment.

Taken to Hospital

The two shooting victims were taken to Pittsburgh Hospital where their condition was reported fair. Two suspects were seized at the scene as eight police cars answered the emergency call. The suspects were taken to East Liberty police station.

Shortly before 10 o'clock, police arrested Walter Webb, 19, of the 7400 block of Monticello Street, and two younger youths on charges of possessing a fire bomb and conspiracy.

Police said the youths were arrested after they allegedly placed a bottle of gasoline with a wick on a stoop at 7711 Frankstown Ave., next to a tavern.

At Night Court Magistrate Fitzgerald ordered Webb held of $10,000 bond and sent the younger youths to Juvenile Court.

At a meeting of Citizens Committee for Community Pride, Clarence (Larry) Huff, chairman, urged calm consideration of the problems caused by the bombing and slaying of a neighborhood grocer on Monday.

Area black residents also attended a hastily called protest rally in the former American Legion Hall at 7127 Kelly St., Homewood, which now is used as an educational and recreational center for the United Movement for Progress.

Huff Sees Night of Tension

Huff, speaking at the CCCP meeting which had been scheduled before this week's incidents, told the audience, "Tonight is a night of tension."

"We must not act in anger but must sit down and try to rationalize what we are going through," he added. "We must endeavor to bring out all the facts so all might know exactly the conditions."

William (Bowie) Haden, head of the United Movement for Progress, appeared to be the chief speaker at the protest rally at 7127 Kelly St. About 100 blacks attended.

Following the meeting Haden said plans were made to form vigilante units to prevent any such incidents in the future. He also said there appeared to be no racial issue in the shooting of the grocer, Michael DeLuca, 65, in his store at 7314 Tioga St., but that there was in the bombing early yesterday.

Residents were summoned to the Haden meeting by a circular distributed after the bombing which featured the word "BOOM" in large capital letters, with a sketch of Homewood and Frankstown avenues, near where the bombing occurred.

"If you are concerned about so-called life and liberty come to 7127 Kelly St. tonight," the circular stated, adding, "This is the community where 13 brothers and sisters were dynamited" although the actual number injured was 15.

At another corner of the hand-drawn circular were the words "by whites who smile the smile of death." It listed names of eight of the blast victims — none of whom was injured critically in the explosion in front of the Paradise Bar at 7147 Frankstown Ave.

Police, meanwhile, pressed the search for the persons who tossed the bomb into the crowd standing in front of the bar. Witnesses said it was tossed from a green auto containing three or four men. There was virtually no description of the men.

Police officials said there was "talk in the streets" that the bombing was in reprisal for the slaying Monday of Michael DeLuca, 65, in his store at 7314 Tioga St., but said they found no evidence that the bombing was a reprisal.

Bomb fragments, removed from the victims, were being studied by technicians in an effort to shed further light to the bomb.

Witness who saw it briefly before it went off as the crowd scattered said it appeared to be round, about the size of a baseball, and possibly constructed of a plastic.

Nine of the 15 blast victims remained in Pittsburgh, Columbia and West Penn hospitals last night but none was reported in serious condition. All except three are from the Homewood-Brushlton district.

Still in Pittsburgh Hospital were: Thomas Robertson, 21, of 7321 Upland St.; Don Jackson, 38, of 7353 Fletcher Way; William Hinson, 19, of 7744 Tioga St.; Louis Kearney, 33, of 246 Clawson St.; Harold Vaughn, 40, of 7343 Race St.; and Barbara Bey, 37, of 2011 Frankstown Ave.

Miss Bey, the only woman victim, was reported in good condition; the other five, in satisfactory condition. All suffered multiple cuts or puncture wounds from bomb fragments. Kearney also suffered a fractured leg.

Still in Columbia Hospital were Joseph Alston, 25, of 1427 Crescent St., and Gregory Patton, 21, of 2014 Grove Place, Uptown. A third man, John Woodson, 23, of 7229 Hermitage St., was transferred from Columbia to West Penn Hospital where he is employed. All three were reported in satisfactory condition.

Six others were treated for lesser injuries at the three hospitals. They were:

At Pittsburgh Hospital — Gerald Stokes, 25, of 1 New Brighton Road, Ben Avon Heights; and Melvin Martin, 32, of 1333 Liverpool St., Northside.

At Columbia Hospital—Mervin Brown, 22, of 7123 Kedron St.; and Everett Drake, 47, of 332 Renfrew St.

At West Penn Hospital — Lawrence Woodson, 19, of 7225 Kelly St.; and Melvin Johnson, 33, of 813 Hale St.

2 Wounded By Police

By DALE McFEATHERS
In confrontations in Homewood early today, city police shot two armed men, confiscated a small arsenal from the Black Power office and arrested two men carrying loaded shotguns on the street.

It was not immediately determined whether the victims were members of a vigilante group organized last night at a meeting in United Movement for Progress headquarters.

Two Homewood men, armed with a .30-06 caliber rifle and a 12-gauge shotgun, were killed by two police officers after a shooting chase which ended in the doorway of the Black Power office, 715 N. Homewood Ave.

The two men, David Owens, 32, of 7215 Race St., and Carl Murphy, 32, of 7704 Fleury Way, were taken to Pittsburgh Hospital.

Owens was listed in satisfactory condition with bullet wounds in the left thigh and hip.

Murphy was listed in fair condition with bullet wounds in the left shoulder, back, thigh and ankle. The hospital said one bullet passed through his lung.

Police said the men were charged with intent to kill, violation of the Uniform Firearms Act, pointing and carrying deadly weapons and conspiracy.

After the shooting, police raided the Black Power office and confiscated two walkie-talkies, a police radio monitor, four rounds of nine-mm. automatic ammunition, 34 rounds of .20-06 ammunition, 37 rounds of .43 caliber automatic ammunition, two clips for a .43 automatic, two boxes of .30-06 caliber shells, two pairs of binoculars, and assorted boxes of empty shotgun and rifle shells.

The .30-06 rifle, which had a telescope sight, and the 12-gauge shotgun, loaded with "pumpkin ball" — 2 1/2-inch slugs instead of the usual buckshot — were also confiscated.

Police also arrested and charged with conspiracy three men found sitting in the office with the lights off.

The men were identified as Roy Wright, 22, of 220 Inwood St.; Curtis L. Tucker, 25, of 6315 Frankstown Ave., and James Davis Jr., 27, of 7637 Mulford St., all Homewood.

An hour later at 1:25 a. m., police arrested two men seen walking down Homewood Ave. near Kelly St. carrying gun cases.

Police said both men had the zipper cases open and were carrying the shotguns inside with their fingers on the triggers.

The 12-gauge shotguns inside the cases, one an automatic and the other a bolt action, were found to be loaded with pumpkin balls, police said.

The two men were charged with violation of the Uniform

Firearms Act, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct.

Police identified one as Calvin C. Skinner, 21, of 212 Burrows St., Oakland.

The second man was later identified by police as Samuel Jennings, 21, of 1207 Creation St., Wilkinsburg.

A can of Chemical Mace was found on one of the men. Police said the serial number on the can tallied with that of a Chemical Mace stolen from a police officer two months ago when he was attacked by a crowd while taking a burglary report in Homewood.

All those arrested were arraigned today before Magistrate Harry Fitzgerald in Police Court, who set bonds and hearing dates for the five men. The two wounded men, Owens and Murphy, will be arraigned later. However, a bond of $25,000 was set on each.

$10,000 Bonds Set

Magistrate Fitzgerald placed $10,000 bonds on both Skinner and Jennings, who police arrested as they walked down Homewood Ave. carrying gun cases. Both face a hearing Oct. 17 on charges of violation of the Uniform Firearms Act, resisting arrest, disorderly conduct, and carrying deadly weapons.

The three men arrested at Black Power headquarters were held on $1000 bonds and charged with conspiracy to commit an unlawful act and violation of the Uniform Firearms Act. A hearing was set for Monday.

Police said Jennings also is charged with burglary and receiving stolen goods in a case related to this morning's incidents.

Armed Men On Roof

The series of incidents with Owens and Murphy began at midnight when police were called to investigate a report of two armed men on the roof of 6 N. Homewood Ave., a building which houses the Pines Coffee Shop and the Homewood Savings and Loan Assn.

DAVID OWENS
Wounded in thigh, hip.

Officers James Fower and Dan Butler in a special services vehicle and Sgts. Jules Dreihold and Frank Cunningham answered the call.

Sgt. Dreihold said the men were seen descending from the building at the rear, in Zenith Way alley.

He said Owens and Murphy pointed their guns at the officers and said, "Back up. This is a standoff. If you don't, we'll kill you."

Sgt. Dreihold said the two men, standing 20 feet away, were ordered to lay down their guns.

"Instead, the two defendants fired and ran," he said.

The officers immediately put out an emergency call which was answered by Larry Watson and Earl Stewart in a patrol car.

The policemen were stopped by a passerby who indicated the two had entered the Black Power office, directly across the street.

Sgt. Dreihold said Officers

Watson and Stewart were confronted by Owens and Murphy holding leveled guns in the doorway of the office.

Sgt. Dreihold said Owens pointed his rifle at Officer Watson and said, "Don't move, Larry."

The two officers opened fire, downing both Owens and Murphy.

None of the police involved was injured.

"Kicked Gun Away"

Sgt. Dreihold said officers later recovered a box of .357 magnum pistol bullets and thirty-two 12-gauge shotgun shells from the roof of the building where the men had been seen.

Owens is economic development co-ordinator for the Urban League in its special Homewood project.

Officers Thomas Leheny and Orlando Diggs said they had seen Calvin Skinner and his companion walking through Homewood with the gun cases but were unable to approach them.

The officers circled through the alley, cut their lights, and coasted into the street until they were alongside the pair.

Officer Leheny said the two men at first refused to lay down their guns and "gave us a bad minute or so."

Finally, he said, "The police had to forcibly kick the shotgun from one of the men."

The officer said that in addition to the two shotguns and the Chemical Mace they recovered seventy-five 12 gauge shotgun shells from the two men. The shells contained pumpkin balls, he said.

Portland concurs that inclusion of information in the suggested leaflet concerning STOKELY CARMICHAEL's white connections would lend credibility to the accusation of change in the former all-black status of the Black Panther Party (BPP) and that a suspicious point can be raised of CARMICHAEL's apparent invulnerability to prosecution.

For possible value of San Francisco, Portland has learned that BPP members and white female hippies have had the following white-owned locations as their hangouts in Oakland: Sportsmen Club #1 on Telegraph Avenue and Sportsmen Club #2 on Grove Street.

San Francisco might consider attempting to obtain authentic night club type photographs of Panthers and white hippies in the above and other locations. This could conceivably be accomplished through discreet arrangements with professional or free lance photographers if a plausible cover for them could be developed. The needed compromising pictures would, of course, appear to be taken only incidentally to other photographs allegedly for a free lance story for a national Negro magazine or else taken covertly.

Portland believes that actual photographs, if obtainable, rather than fake ones through montage, would be highly desirable for the proposed leaflet. Genuine compromising photographs of even lesser BPP members would tend to support the charge that the Oakland BPP has gone soft on honkies and Panthers need new leadership or a new Party.

San Francisco informants may be able to supply information regarding incidents and relationships of BPP members to support these allegations. Possibly the information concerning STOKELY CARMICHAEL's background could be used in the second follow-up leaflet. The first leaflet could intimate that CARMICHAEL is a fake Panther and promise that the "West Coast Committee for a Real Black Panther Party" is getting the facts to prove it.

Portland believes that since there is no BPP unit in Oregon and that since the counterintelligence effort is directed to BPP leadership in Oakland it is impractical for Portland to obtain the photographs and background information necessary. Portland can assist in arranging the material, possibly printing and dissemination, but San Francisco would appear to be in the best position to decide which BPP figures are most vulnerable to this type of operation and to collect the necessary data.

It is noted for possible use in this operation is the fact that [REDACTED] a self-admitted BPP organizer living in [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] after conferring with ELDREDGE CLEAVER and other BPP officers. [REDACTED] says he has the approval of BPP to begin a Panther unit in Portland. Mailing of the "West Coast Committee, etc." leaflet from Portland would, incidentally, throw suspicion on [REDACTED] and disrupt his plans here. It would appear that [REDACTED] has become one of the sponsors of a new independent BPP, and [REDACTED] in November, 1968, moved to a new address which could be used on leaflets showing this as the headquarters for the West Coast Committee.

[REDACTED] He plausibly has East Coast and California connections and is also well known to Seattle Panthers. He is a militant black leader, an opportunist, and conceivably could be among sponsors of a West Coast Committee.

San Francisco observations concerning the above facets of this operation are requested.

Chicago is in agreement with the Bureau that cooperation with the Peace and Freedom Party had been purchased by the BPP is a good possible means of counterintelligence.

It is felt that consideration could be given in the future to utilizing the fact that [REDACTED] of the Peace and Freedom Party, is white and ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, a member of the BPP, was the Presidential candidate.

Careful thought has been given to Bureau's request concerning the manner in which the Chamber of Commerce might be able to contribute toward law enforcement's efforts to counter violence on the part of black extremists now taking place throughout the nation.

Inasmuch as the Chamber of Commerce is an organization of business establishments in a given community any action on the part of this organization would entail the cooperation of the business places of a given area. It might be possible for such an organization to sponsor an award to the group, including black extremist organizations, which has been most responsible in combating racial violence in the community.

This program would start with the National Chamber of Commerce which would then supervise the program on a state and local level.

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated 10/21/68, under the above caption.

This Bureau communication requested observations as to the manner in which the Chamber of Commerce might make a worthwhile contribution in a law enforcement context through its associations and activities among citizens, both black and white, and through businesses in Ghetto areas and otherwise.

Unquestionably a group such as the Chamber of Commerce, the Jay Cees and the like, could render a great service to law enforcement due in large measure to its functioning within the business community in urban areas. It would appear, however, that in a law enforcement context the application and use of these facilities might be more widespread on a local level, certainly however the potential for exploitation offered by such groups should be explored in the area of counterintelligence against black extremists groups. In Chicago for example, and presumably in other large cities, there exists a Chamber of Commerce which consists entirely of Negro business representatives and which functions as a Chamber of Commerce, limited however to the Negro community and Negro businessmen. In Chicago, this organization is known as the Cosmopolitan Chamber of Commerce, 840 East 87th Street.

Such a group as this offers particular possibility since it is primarily within the black areas of the city that many militants operate, in terms of extortion type activities, isolated acts of vandalism and the like. Negroes have been victimized in these activities, as well as whites by such elements, both during large scale disturbances and otherwise, although it is true that white owned and operated businesses are primarily targets. Still, however, a Negro oriented Chamber of Commerce would almost of necessity be aware of conditions within the business community in Ghetto areas and of those groups which are creating problems, making militant demands for employment, and the like. In this regard, it might be well to consider the problems posed to large chain operators such as Jewel Tea, A & P, and the like, which operate within Ghetto areas.

It would appear that the problem presented in any counterintelligence approach would be that the Bureau could not openly or indirectly suggest any such type operation to a group such as this. If such were considered, at all, it obviously could only be done after extensive and careful ground work and after the individuals being dealt with had been proved extremely reliable.

It is believed, however, that it might be practical for the Bureau to consider a program of contacting such groups, in order to generally acquaint them with our interest in militant and extremist organizations functioning within the Negro community who because of their past actions have proved of interest to the Bureau in connection with our intelligence gathering function and our responsibilities in the internal security field. Based upon the results of such a liaison arrangement and a number of contacts, a more intelligent appraisal could be made of the fashion in which an indirect approach might be made to representatives of these groups to implant upon their operation the idea of some sort of positive counter approach, such as exposure, more aggressive local prosecution and the like, which would tend to counter the activities of such extremists who have proved to be a problem within the respective communities.

As a side benefit, the liaison established in this might prove beneficial from an intelligence standpoint, apart from any counterintelligence program which might evolve from this.

In short, it is not believed that until contacts are initiated with such groups as this, and after an exploratory period in which the areas of their knowledge and responsibility are identified, can a question of potential for worthwhile counterintelligence activity be weighed. It is also likely that these groups would differ in attitude and composition from city to city and in all likelihood an overall counterintelligence approach would not be practical.

Basically, however, such an organization as the Chamber of Commerce, representative of business interests, would appear to be a conservatively oriented group which would tend to look with disfavor upon the irresponsibility and damaging activities of black extremists, youth gangs and any other elements such as these, which might in some fashion be subject to a counterintelligence approach. Through an avenue such as suggested previously, together with a thorough understanding of the exact functions of these groups within the community, an effective counterintelligence program might be developed.

No counterintelligence operation appears feasible or warranted at this time under the above circumstances.

Referenced Kansas City letter indicated one counterintelligence operation was under consideration. That operation was carried out, as reflected in Kansas City letter of 9/12/68, to the Bureau captioned, [REDACTED].

on radical Wayne student paper

By HARRY SALSINGER
Detroit News Education Writer

Students are up in arms over Wayne State University's far-out campus newspaper, the South End. A movement to silence it is now being led by fraternity men.

The administration, which admits the South End is a thorn under the hide of the university, hopes the conflict will be resolved soon.

The South End, a crossbreed of Black Militant, underground and revolutionary press, prints 15,000 copies which are distributed free five days a week on the campus.

The paper is supported by the Student Activities Fund—part of the general operating budget of the university. This year $34,560 has been allocated for publication, but $55,000 will be recovered in advertising revenue.

THE SOUTH END used to be known as the Daily Collegian when it was a fairly standard campus newspaper. In 1966, a hippie motorcyclist named Art Johnston was named editor and he gave the paper a new name and a psychedelic look.

The editor is chosen each year by the publications committee of the Student-Faculty Council. There are four students and three faculty members on the committee.

Student criticism of the South End has been widespread since the change but this week more than 50 students appeared at the office of Dr. William R. Keast, Wayne president, to protest its publication.

Dr. Keast advised them to "keep loose and cool it for a while."

The students complain that the South End is almost completely Black-oriented, unrepresentative of the ideas of the majority of the students and childishly written.

EVEN A CURSORY reading of almost any edition of the South End will confirm all these charges.

Every issue contains references to the "racist, imperialistic" U.S. government, not only when commenting on its "aggression against the heroic Vietnamese people" but even in local stories.

One article this week described an anti-Viet war demonstration where the "club-carrying pigs" of "gestapo chief" Johannes Spreen were out in force.

It also called the right-wing organization Breakthrough the "fascist civilian auxiliary of the police."

Breakthrough members, the South End reported, had to be protected by the "pigs" when they were faced by "karate-trained Black Panthers."

AFTER DETAILING the activities of the police, Breakthrough and the Black Panthers,

JOHN WATSON
South End editor

the South End contented itself with a brief report that the "speakers at rally really laid a thing on the beastly nature of the American capitalist system."

The editor of the South End, John Watson, denies that it is a Black Power publication. He calls it a "revolutionary" newspaper.

The paper now carries under its name on page one the slogan: "The Year of the Heroic Guerilla." It is decorated with two small drawings of black panthers.

Watson does not claim the paper represents the views of the majority of the students. He has said, editorially, that "if the South End were to be representative of the student majority it would not be supporting the struggle for freedom of people all over the world."

About 20 South End staff members receive annual salaries ranging from less than $200 to $2,400 for Watson.

One of the casualties of the change in a student newspaper has been Frank P. Gill, a faculty adviser for the last 21 years, who recently quit that post to return to teaching journalism.

"I'm fed up," Gill said. "This is not an idea of a newspaper. I'm tired of trying to be an adviser in a romper-room for freedom adolescents."

GILL SAID HE has been surprised that there was no greater outcry against a paper that is "obscene, blasphemous and treason all in one edition."

He is being replaced by Stan Putnam, former newspaper reporter. Putnam would comment on any possible changes in the South End.

The most recent story to anger students appeared last Wednesday.

It was an account of a disturbance and a fist fight in the student cafeteria in which a black cafeteria worker was arrested who was accused of threatening a white student with a knife.

The complaint was later withdrawn by the white student.

The incident occurred on the day the Tigers won the World Series, and the South End ran this report in its usual biased fashion.

"The honkies (white students) were celebrating the victory as befits the occasion of a great white hope (the Tigers) triumphing over a black opponent (Bob Gibson of the Cardinals). This type of honkie being silly, the celebration soon got out of hand."

THE ARTICLE also referred to a group of fraternity men as "Greek freaks."

It was the members of the Sigma Chi Union, a men's club, and the fraternity who asked Dr. Keast to clamp down on the South End.

"The students are really ticked off," said John Lygion, president of the Student-Faculty Council. "Everything in the paper is childishly reported and it doesn't represent the feelings of most of the students at all."

Less than 10 percent of Wayne's 500 students are Negro.

Lygizos said the Inter-Fraternity Council, representing 18 fraternities, would complain formally to the Student-Faculty Council and might circulate petitions asking that the present editors be removed. He said Wayne's 12 sororities would be asked to join.

WATSON is undisturbed by the activities of the fraternity men:

"I wouldn't expect them to like the paper," he said. "The element of the student body which they represent is basically reactionary anyway."

"They have never done anything which in a remote sense could be considered progressive. Since black people have taken over the paper, they've gotten all upset about adjectives. We'll discuss our adjectives after we've taken care of their racism."

Despite his disdain, Watson has agreed to give the Greeks — the fraternities — a regular column in the paper.

In a switch from the previous editor's attitude, the South End now runs frequent and unslanted stories on various university activities. It also gives extensive coverage to the Tartars, Wayne's football team.

But Watson still views the paper as an organ of the "revolution" — of the poor against the establishment, of the blacks against their oppressors.

ASKED IF HE thought this was appropriate for a college newspaper, Watson said:

"The paper is published for the university in the context of the overall community. A university surrounded by a black community cannot exist as a privileged little island. It is a tool of the community."

Regarding the frequent use of four-letter words in the South End, Watson said they are "appropriate to get the point across in the most efficient manner."

Despite student protests, and complaints from parents, no immediate action is contemplated against the South End by the administration.

"The position as of now," Dr. Kerst said, "is that it is the official newspaper, its editor was appointed in a perfectly regular manner."

ELDRIDGE CLEAVER

Good morning ladies and gentlemen. I want to thank those who are responsible for inviting me here today, and I want to thank Mickey Mouse Ronald Reagan, Donald Duck Rafferty, and Big Mama Unruh for making it possible. I am pleased to be here in the pig pen of Sacramento today. This is the pig pen where the racists, and the oppressors prop their genocide and their crimes against people. Someone told me that when Ronald Reagan entered the capitol here they changed the name of the capitol to the ferry building. I think that's very appropriate and I want to congratulate whoever that was that came up with that thought and I have a special little word for Ronald Reagan in the morning. fuck you Ronnie baby.... It is my belief that Ronald Reagan is a punk, a sissy, and a coward and I challenge him into a duel. I challenge the punk to a duel to the death and he can choose his own weapons. It can be a baseball bat, a gun, a knife, or a marshmallow and I'll beat him to death with a marshmallow.

You know I lived in this area for a number of years. Folsom Prison is about twenty miles from here I understand and I had occasion, I had reason to keep my eye on what was going on in Sacramento the prison system, the adult authority has its headquarters here in Sacramento, appropriately here in the pig pen. I know that my parole officer has his comrades here today his agents here, same thing for Ronald Reagan, same thing for the adult authority, the same thing for all the wardens of all the prisons, all the pigs the hogs who patrol the prisons, fuck you.... I feel it is necessary to say that, it's necessary to say that because they're going around threatening me with prison again, they're telling me that I didn't go along with their program, they warned me when I was released from prison that there were two things that I was not to do. I was not to say anything or write anything derogatory about the prison system or about any big politician. And what I want to know is how can you say anything irrelevant today without talking about the pigs and the power structure? How can you do that? So that we cannot go along, we cannot go along with their program, we feel that in fact that their prisons, that their oppressive laws must be turned against them because they are the criminals, they are the ones who are out of order and they are the ones who need rehabilitating and they will never stop me whether they put me in prison or not from saying what I want to say because it's none of their business. They are public servants, I'm a taxpayer, you dig it, and (not clear, perhaps saying baby) (for approximately 45 seconds, no audible sound)(next two words not clear). Act in a desired manner because they are out of order, they must be brought under control and this is the problem confronting the world today, particularly in Babylon. We have the problem here in Babylon of arrogant public servants. These pigs in uniforms, your local police, gestapo forces are public servants. These racists, demagogic politicians are public servants, yet they have gotten the attitude they become so arrogant that they pretend and they act like they own the people, they act like they own the Government and that there is nothing the people can do about it. I say that that's bullshit, that there is something the people can do about it, there has always been something the people can do about it and that is we can walk into those legislatures, grab them by their ears, by the scruffs of their neck and drag them out and throw them in the gutter where they belong. We can do that. There is nothing they can do to stop us except confuse us, divide us against each other. tell you that the Black Panther Party, Eldridge Cleaver is a racist, that he represents the threat to white people and then tell us that white people are becoming more and more racists. That in fact their second choice for the presidency is the racist pig from Alabama, George Wallace. This is a lie, we know it's a lie because when they made these polls that we see in the paper did they come to you and ask you what you felt about George Wallace? They didn't come to me and ask me what I thought about the mother fucker, you dig it. So that what they're doing, what they're doing is using propaganda to confuse people and to sway public opinion to make people think that this is the trend so that everybody will want to hop on the pig wagon, you dig it. But that's not what's happening. I believe that Richard Nixon finances all the publicity for George Wallace because what he does is set George Wallace up as some right wing extremist which conveniently places him as the middle of the road, so that he's a very sly and slippery greasy pig. He's been in that game a long time and he knows how to ease his way through little tight squeezes. He's trying to ease his way into the White House but really the whole election this year is irrelevant isn't it. You have a choice between oink, oink, and oink. That's the choice. That's the choice that the people have. That's not a choice that we can feel comfortable about the next four years because the tensions of the world, the tensions within this country have reached a point to where something has to give, either the people are going to have to cave in under the pressures put upon them by the pigs of the power structure or we're going to have to turn that pressure around and make the pigs cave in.

Today we say that you're either part of the solution or part of the problem, there is no more middle ground. There is no more middle ground because the black liberation struggle in this country which is really the motive force behind all the boat rocking that is going on has reached a point to where it can't turn back, nonviolence was blown away with Martin Luther King. When the racists shot Martin Luther King, the bullet that killed him killed nonviolence, and this only means that black people reached the point where they were saying no more, no more, if you shoot me I'm shooting back, if you put your stick upside my head I'm gonna put something upside your head. Don't come to me talking about you gonna spray me in my face cause I'm not gonna have it. They will recognize that you are not superman, you're not superman, that you're just another man, you have a uniform on you have a badge on and this is supposed to frighten people. We have been indoctrinated to fear you, we have been indoctrinated to respect authority no matter whether it has been perverted by pigs or not, but we recognize today that we are not dealing with authority because authority is something that people willingly submit to. They tell us well you have no respect for authority. That's not True: Authority comes from something that's authorized. When the people authorize something they submit to it because that's an expression of their will, but we have pigs of the power structure exercising power and misnaming that authority. They have power based upon force, guns in the hands of pigs that they send down to enforce the edicts, the laws, the rules and the regulations for this larger prison outside the walls of Folsom Prison. If it was not for the policeman with his gun and with his club with his gas chamber ultimately backing all that up who would have any terror, who would have any respect for these vicious laws that are written on the books here in the pig pen of Sacramento? Baldheaded faggots in the legislature and the State Senate all of their rules would be nothing but toilet paper if it were not for the fact that they have these racists gestapo police forces to send in to brutalize the public and to force them to go along with those programs, but something has happened to change all of that. The Minister of Defense of the Black Panther Party, brother Huey P. Newton, who was recently railroaded through the courts of Alameda County, now in prison, he was here, he was listening when brother Malcolm X was here writing it down. Brother Malcolm X prophesied that black people have been placed in a position where they have no choice, they have no other alternative but to arm themselves against the aggression of the power structure. While Malcolm X was here talking about that I was laying in Folsom Prison listening. Huey P. Newton, brother Bobby Seale were in Oakland, California, listening. Black people all over this country and also white people were listening. Young white people were listening, with more of an open mind than these old baldheaded reprobated racists who are so, who are so ingrained with racism that even though they recognize that what they are into is evil, what they're into is destructive and chaotic that they ain't gonna change. They're not gonna change and we have to realize they're not gonna change and that the only way the situation can be salvaged is for those who understand that the entire world is sitting on a death row, teetering on the brink of chaos and destruction and that it has to be salvaged by people who are willing to recognize each other as human beings, who are willing to close the books on all of American history up until this point and to write a new history.

Heretofore we've had a history of the pigs, for the pigs, and by the pigs, that's what we've had. We've had a history, we've had a Government, a lying Government that has become so foul, so corrupt, so degenerate that even the President has been repudiated by his own party. They call that a credibility gap. But they're really saying that Lyndon Baines Johnson is a lying mother fucker. That's what they were saying, that's what they were saying, they were saying, they were saying that his, that his reports, his statistics cannot be relied upon by the people. They were saying that the reports put out by his various cabinet officials, ("shutup") cannot be, cannot be relied upon by the people. That's what they're saying, but in accordance with American history where everything disreputable is glossed over, swept beneath the rug, they say well LBJ baby you got a credibility gap going, and being a stiff necked, arrogant racist, Ku Klux Klan, Nazi pig, I mean he didn't, he didn't try to change his style. He just continued to lie. Oink. Oink. Oink. Dig it. But then the message finally got through his thick head that the streets were in chaos, young white people were out there demonstrating against his war, against his genocide in Vietnam and he finally got it through his thick head that he was foul so he made an announcement to the American people well I'm gonna give you back your Government, I ain't gonna run no more. Dig it. Well he gonna run some more, all the pigs gonna run, they gonna run for their life. They gonna run for their life the way Batista ran for his life out of Cuba, the way Chiang Kai-shek ran for his life out of China, the way all tyrants, all oppressors eventually have to run for their lives because eventually the people will rise up against them put them up against the wall, up against the wall mother fucker, they will do that and they will inflict justice upon them for all of the evil that they have perpetrated upon the hands of the people. They will do that, they will do that.

Now a lot of people tell me, Eldridge, you shouldn't cuss so much. I mean that you wound the tender ears of the people, particularly the gentle middle class American white people but I say this, that the term mother fucker is a legitimate term, every father does that, but that's not the point. That's not the point. See, see. We, we could talk about you dirty mother intercourser. We could say that but it doesn't, it doesn't have the impact, it doesn't have the little pungent punch that I dig, see. But see the term, the term, has a history and I think this needs to be understood. I don't think that black people need to be ashamed when they use the term mother fucker because what that does, that refers to history. It means that black people have been subjected because of the experience of slavery to a matriocore (phonetic, possibly mediocore) form of the family. That in the family that we've had here the mother became the central figure because the father was sold here, sold there, run here, run there and often times split because he couldn't deal with the shit. So that the mother became the central figure she became the object of veneration so that the worst thing that a person could do was commit incest and have sex or carnal knowledge of his own mother. So that this is meant to be a profound put down and when a brother really wants to put another cat down he inflicts that upon him and calls him a practitioner of incest. That's all it means, a dishonor, a dishonor of the head of the family. In European society they say patricize (phonetic), you dig it. They could have said a father fucker you know, but I mean I don't think that we need to be up tight about those terms, nothing disgraceful about that. I don't feel that, I don't feel disgraced. I like to say those things. O.K.

I have a situation on my hands where I was invited to go to the campus of the University of California, Berkeley, and say mother fucker to a student class there who wanted to hear that. You see, Now this was supposed to be an experimental course and what these students did, they looked out in the community and they saw something happening there. They saw that the Black Panther Party was very actively involved with the question of racism, trying to deal with racism and they wanted to relate to that. We spoke it on the campus at Berkeley many times we visited many classes there. Ready, alright, O.K., so that they wanted to bring this into the classroom because they felt that this would be beneficial, that perhaps a series of lectures could be structured around that and maybe something beneficial will come out of it. Well, you have to remember that this is an election year, you have the Democratic Party, the Republican Party fighting over the public trough, fighting over the money bags, fighting over control of the hydrogen bombs, the guns, and they need issues so Max Rafferty, public, what is it, supervisor of Public Instruction, Public Education, The Minister of Education, George Murray told me last night that Max Rafferty has a PhD in physical education. See. See. You know we often hear that he has, that he has a doctor's degree, you know, but what is it in, football, baseball, basketball, and other balls. you dig it. (A few words not clear, clapping going on) But here, here is a man, here is a man who is running for the United States Senate. Here is a man who has built a career maligning and attacking certain aspects of the educational system in California. He attacks textbooks that mention black people in a favorable light. I read a quote in the newspaper this morning when they asked him about law and order (you know he's a law and order candidate) and he said that he would never disobey any law, that if he lived during the days of slavery he would have bided by the fugitive slave law. That if a, if a black slave had sought refuge in his house he would have turned him over to the slave owners because he is dedicated to law and order. Now what kind of a mother fucker is that. I mean what kind of man is that. He's a baldheaded buffoon, he's a criminal, depriving people of their human rights and going around saying that Eldridge Cleaver is definitely qualified to talk about the crises in the cities, he's just as qualified as Attila the Hun would have been to discuss international mass murder. Here is a man who wants to drop hydrogen bombs on China. Here is a man who wants to increase the occupations of black communities by these gestapo standing armies, police departments and he puts himself forward as Ronald Reagan did, yea, right on. Turn it back on. you gonna turn it on? One, two, three, yea. So that these people needed issues, you dig it, and they found out that I had been offered this particular course, these lectures at the University of California and they proceeded as demagogues (phonetic) in the State of California have done traditionally to use the campus, the university as a whiffling boy to stir up some right wing political sentiment, hoping for their comrades and themselves to ride to victory at the polls in November. This is all it was. This is all it is, and I think that that has to be repudiated since they have usurped the machinery of Government. We can't do it at the ballot box because what do we have, we have a choice between pigs, so that the students on that campus have no choice but to buck the officials, to buck the millionaires, the exploiting interests (phonetic) on the Board of Regents, call for the abolition of the Board of Regents to turning over the administration of the university to students and the faculty members and to hold those lectures. to hold that course whether Ronald Reagan and Max Rafferty and Jesse Unruh, the members of the John Birch Society like it or not. Later for them. See.

The students, the students invited me to deliver ten lectures. The Regents say that I can only deliver one. Too many for you mother fucker. That's what it is, but it's my desire now and I'm working with the students on this to deliver twenty whether they like it or not because it's none of their business, and Ronald Reagan and Max Rafferty will not be allowed to audit (phonetic) the class, they will not be allowed to do that, even though they are the ones who need it most. But I think that in some sense we may be a little too hard on Ronald Reagan because the boy is not responsible for the things that he says. The only thing, I mean, the only thing the only thing that he can do is regurgitate the scripts that are placed before him. That's all he can do. So that if you took away the scripts and placed him here before the microphones the only sound that would emanate from his lips would be a series of oinks. Oinks in high soprano, you dig it. We, we have to look behind these puppets and see who is writing their scripts. What do they represent and what impact and what result would their actions and their words have upon the body politic, that should be our interest.

The Black Panther Party, the Peace and Freedom Party is interested as I said, in closing the book on all history here in this country up until this point. We date the closing of the book back to March the fifteenth when the Peace and Freedom Party and the Black Panther Party formed a coalition in Richmond, California, at the founding convention of the Peace and Freedom Party. We want to start a new history. A history of the people, for the people, and by the people. A history that can be taught to black students, black children, and to white students, white children. Not a lying history, not one that falsified, that tries to clean up for the deeds of the past. We say that guilt can be inherited if you persist in the evil deeds of your forefathers, but there's something in congress about blaming those who are here today for things that have been done in the past that they really didn't have any direct control over. The only guilt that can be attributed to white people is the guilt of continuing to run down the oppressive gains instituted by their forefathers. Those who make a firm and unequivocal break with that past are considered as comrades in the struggle, brothers and sisters of humanity and should be respected, the same respect that we give to each other, there has to be that type of respect across the board, across the various ethnic divisions and around the world because the world today is a community. It is a community. All of this talk about separation and integration is nothing but political propaganda, it's irrelevant when you look at the real situation because the whole world has become a neighborhood. You have a division of labor in the world, you have a division of resources, and we only have political problems left. We have technology that has enabled to enact the basic principle of the Black Panther Party and that is that every man, woman, and child on the face of the planet Earth today deserves the highest and the best standard of living that human knowledge and technology is capable of producing. Period. We say that every man, woman, and child deserves that. Anything, anything and everything that stands in the way of that has to go by fair means or foul, by any means necessary because the oppressors have no rights which the oppressed are bound to respect. No rights. The exploiting businessmen who control this capitalistic system are criminals. The politicians who defend their interests are criminals, and the racist gestapo occupying armies that back them up are criminals and they have no rights which the people are bound to respect. The capitalistic system that controls this country is a cheap obstacle to progress in the world today. It's bankrolling oppression all over the world, financing, arming every repressive, oppressive regime on the face of the planet Earth from South Africa to the puppet regime in South Vietnam to the occupying regimes in the black communities right here in Babylon. It's this Government, this economic system that's doing that. It's this Government, this economic system that has to be changed. It has to be changed or the world is gonna go up in flames, because on the one hand you have people in the socialistic world who have liberated themselves from capitalism and who are not gonna return to capitalism no matter what the revisionists in Czechoslovakia try to do, no matter what the CIA tries to do around the world, no matter what the FBI tries to do, no matter what the Marines and the Green Berets try to do, no matter what all of these agencies combined together try to do, the world has to be liberated from an anachronistic (phonetic) system that is not capable of fulfilling the desires and needs of the people.

We need an economic system that functions on the basis and the needs of the people. Not one that struggles along, cripples, stumbling along according to the margin of profit and laws of some fat funky businessmen laying up in the white suburbs. That's not what we need. We say that the expropriators must be expropriated, that here in America we're not gonna turn America over to the Soviet Union or to Chairman Mao (phonetic) although they could deal with it, see. But we need a specific application of the universal principles of socialism, a homegrown yankee doodle dandy American version of socialism that can provide a life, a good life politating (phonetic) the good life for the people. The people have a right to that. They have a right to bringing all of the intelligent investigations of the past to bear on their present problems. No longer can we afford to sweep Karl Marx under the rug because the man was heavy. He had a lot to say. The man was a scientist, the man was a genius and he knew what he was talking about. He is yet to be refuted. He cannot be refuted because what he talked about that he had to say can be verified by experience. We know that the capitalistic system based on the institutions of private property is obscene and absurd, particularly for black people. How can black people relate to a world where exploiters have a little piece of paper that tells them that if you want milk, if you want bread, if you want meat, if you want clothing, if you want shelter you've got to dance to the tune of the white racist power structure. The white racist power structure, the pigs who compose that structure from Rockefeller to Reagan to his mama they came here, they came here naked from the womb like everybody else. They didn't come here from the womb with deeds of trust to the land, to the resources. They came here naked, crying like everybody else. You dig it. They came here that way. They didn't come here with any bluechip stock paying into his naked ass. You see the earth, the earth was here, the earth is still here and since we re- need access to these resources in order to live, we have a right to it and no man is gonna stand up and tell me that I can't eat, that I can't have a place for shelter, that I can't have clothes if I want that because if he doesn't provide a way for me to get it through the economic system and if he doesn't want to put me on welfare as Mickey Mouse Reagan doesn't want to do, if he doesn't want to provide me with medical attention. I mean the best medical attention that's available. I mean when they start passing out hearts if I need one, I want one. See, see. I mean if there're hearts available I don't think that only the rich pigs should have hearts. I think that everybody has an equal right to the hearts. A heart for everybody, a heart for nobody. Dig it, dig it.

I don't want him telling me that. We don't want to hear that and so, it has to be done, whether they want to hear it or not, whether they like it or not because really there is nothing they can do about it because really there are more people in this country than there are pigs. The only way that they can win is through the age old technique of divide and conquer, by making white people think that it's the intention of wild-eyed black radicals, militants, crazy niggers with guns, you dig it, to come through the white suburbs and to kill the babies, you see. That's the only way that they can put us up tight, or as I said, by frightening black people with the spectre of genocide, by telling us that the white people are now letting their racism surface and that they're gonna support George Wallace so therefore, lets support Nixon and saddle ourselves with four more years of this tyranny. That's bullshit and we don't have to go for it and we have the eternal resort that's always reserved to the people of having another Boston Tea Party. We can have another tea party. We can take it into the streets, we can build a revolutionary movement that can tell the pigs that you have usurped the machinery of Government, you've perverted the channels of great redress of grievances. You leave us no redress. You leave us no avenue for redress so that we are gonna take it into the streets and debate this issue through other means, through other means.

Now the people who supported the late Senator Kennedy, the people who supported the late Senator McCarthy, have had a lesson brought home to them, that they used to criticise, they had a McCarthy faction within the Peace and Freedom Party and they were always criticising us for calling the pigs pigs. They were saying that what you do is alienate the moderate white people but I notice when they went to Chicago to try to support their candidate, the man who had taken a courageous stand within certain limitations against the war in Vietnam, when they went to Chicago to support him, Mayor Daly. Taking his orders from Hearshhead Humphrey and Lynchin' Baines Johnson, released the dogs with their baseball bats and their chemical mace and their vicious service revolvers and they gave the supporters of Eugene McCarthy a lesson in pigology, and what we saw was that the supporters of McCarthy were calling them pigs, gestapo. The chairman of the delegation from Wisconsin said that he had gone to Chicago thinkin' that he was gonna participate in a Democratic process and he went there to find out that the Democratic Party had turned into the Nazi Party, and I mean we had been saying that all along but he just didn't see it so that those who were criticizing us for calling the pigs pigs ended up doin' that themselves. Is there anybody in the audience besides the pigs who got up tight when we call a pig a pig? Alright tender-hearted baby, when they crack your head, when they crack your head, call him law and order, or call him the guardian angel. Call 'em the guardians of the law. Call 'em the guardians of the law. What is that, censorship, huh? How do they go about doin' that? P. G. & E., right? P. G. & E. should be the first company that's nationalized. See. The Telephone Company, the Telephone Company should actually be the first. The means of communication, the mass media, should be taken out of the hands of the pigs of the mass media and placed into hands of control of the people. Let me give you one example: I don't know anybody who is not up tight about their phone bill. I don't know anybody. What that represents is a tariff for communication because the rich people can afford those phone bills, they have all kinds of sophisticated devices. Sacramento. Sacramento. What cha gonna do? What cha gonna do? Can you hear me? Well, I'm not gonna talk on it. Turn this mother fucker back on and find out where the pig is who's doin' that. Is it on? Alright.

I want to talk about the Phone Company and a very important point because (not audible) is it on? (not audible) Today I want to talk about the Phone Company. I'm gonna do that, alright? You see it's very important, it's very important when you recognize that when you have a country with about two hundred million people in it that one of the key things that hold people together and allows them to have an understanding is communication. Communication and transportation so that when only the people who are affluent, only the people who have big money are able to stay in contact with their graduating class, with their childhood friends, with their neighbors, with their relatives, with their tools, that when you start talking about alienation, you talkin' about people who cannot communicate with each other so that when they have these tariffs on the telephone you can't afford to call your mother in Mississippi, you can't afford to talk to the members of your graduating class, you cannot afford to continue a life long friendship, a relationship with large numbers of people because you just can't afford the price so that they create a situation where only the rich people, the people with money, with means, are able to maintain this communication and this creates alienation, this creates confusion and this dis-unites people from each other so that at a very minimum any self-respecting Government has a duty to see to it that the people are able to communicate and indulge in transportation. I think that's very clear. I think that's very clear that if communication and transportation is essential to civilization that it's the duty of those that we set up to manage the public affairs to provide that, so that the telephone companies in this country should first be nationalized. The telephone service should be made free to the people because the machines, oh, the only thing they require is the cost of maintenance, the paying of a livin' salary for those who work to keep the machinery functioning and we don't need to pay these large inflated dividends to the leisure class. We don't need the leisure class anymore. We never did. We definitely don't need 'em now. We definitely don't need to have a tariff placed on communication in order for them to lay up there fornicate and oink on the Riviera. We don't need that. It's insulting, it's ridiculous when you walk onto an airplane and have to pay two hundred dollars, three hundred dollars to cross this country, to fly across this country because only the people with big money can really afford that. The transportation, the communication very clearly should be made free to the people and the only cost that's legitimate is the cost of producing it. That's the only cost and the only cost that's legitimate in any of the other functions of an economic system, a technological system, is the cost of maintenance, and the cost of continuing to allow it to function, but these inflated profits that go into the pockets of the rich families, of the four hundred, of the Ronald Reagans, and their backers, of the Nixons and their backers, the Rockefellers and the Fords and the Mellons (phonetic) and all those pigs, that money, and the money that they're wasting on these murderous weapons of war should be used here, domestically to do away with the ills that are being inflicted upon the people. How can you look yourself in the mirror? How could you look at your face when you sit around and allow the Governor of your State to castrate (phonetic) a vital (phonetic) program like medical care for the aged. What kind of man is it who would deny medical treatment to those who need it most? What kind of system is it that here was a girl in San Diego who had an infirmity and she needed an iron lung. The iron lungs were available but she didn't have two or three thousand dollars with which to pay for it and the Government took no notice of that and if it hadn't been for some philanthropic people, not rich people, but a poor man in New York who had had an iron lung for his wife who had died and was willing to donate that to this young girl, if it was not for that, the Government wasn't gonna move to provide her with that so how can we live under a system that would deny an iron lung to someone because they don't have the price to pay for it. I say that a system of that type is insupportable, is illegitimate and it has to be changed and what do you say about that? See, see. What do you say? What do you say about a system? Do we have to change a system that would deny medical attention to children. Do we have to change that? Do we have to change a system that denies medical attention to old people? Do we have to change a system that's willing to spend millions and billions of dollars to murder people across the water to murder people here at home and refuses to authorize anything for welfare? Do we have to change that? Do we have to put a stop do we have to put a stop to these pigs brutalizing citizens? Do we have to put a stop to that? Can we do that? Do we have the will. Well, I say that we have a strategic method of doin' that. And I wanna talk now to the ladies in the audience. Some man did that (not audible) I say that we gonna have to do this some other time, some other place (not audible) Is it on? No, it's not, see (not audible) Well, who was it? There we go, it's on so (phonetic) wait a minute man, alright.

I want to talk now about pussy power. I wanna say that political power grows out of the lips of a pussy. I wanna break that down, that we said that you either part of the solution or you're part of the problem, and all the ladies in the audience, and I don't give a damn if the men like this or not, I mean the subject, I mean saying this, I know you can relate to that. See, see. But I want to say this, that if you consider yourself to be part of the solution, how can you justify laying up with part of the problem? I'm saying the love, I'm saying that sex can be progressive, can be revolutionary, it either can be conservative, it can be reactionary and it can be counter-revolutionary, I'm saying that you are not justified in laying up and allowing some chump to slobber over you. If he's not willing to stand out and become a warrior in defense of the tribe, to support you, to defend you, to defend the people against all of the evils, against all of the pigs who are putting the people in jeopardy. That if you do that you are giving aid and comfort to the enemy. That's what you're doin'. See, see, see. That's what you're doin'. And you don't have to do that because you have, you have the key to revolution, to success, between your thighs whether you know that or not. See, see. That we have all these males running around here, talking about their men, saying that they're men, actually thinking that they're men, but when it comes to defending the requisites for survival and society they start talking about they're nonviolent, they start talking about well they wanna do this by peaceful means, whether those peaceful means will work or not. We say that when they come to you, drive them away. Hang the telephone up in their face. Tell 'em not to come knocking on your door and not to write you any love letters because you gonna use them for toilet paper if they do. Tell them to get themselves together and then come back and if you don't do that, that you talkin' about you wanna have all these babies, well you're not putting any security on the future. You're not, you're not doin' anything to help create a world where your babies can grow up and be human beings. So repudiate the counter revolutionaries and all the revolutionaries. Hang your name and your phone number on the bulletin board and when the chicks get up tight and they need a little help tell them to call you, call doctor feel good. You dig it, dig it, dig (not audible).

(Not audible) One, two, three, ah, we're on, O.K., one more time, hold that one, so I hope that the girls got that message and put it into practice if there's only two or three of you that got the message, put together a little pressure group, get yourself some buttons that say "pussy power". You dig, and do a little agitating, do a little agitating, spread the word around, because it has to be done, otherwise you will limp along, to allow these cats to be faking along, hiding. Was that Ronald Reagan, Oink (not audible). This is, this is a college isn't it? You would think that since this problem began that we would have some enterprising person that would have dealt with that, but this is an attribute, or description of what Max Rafferty has done to education here in California.

I have one more thing I want to talk about. We said that nonviolence died with Martin Luther King, now we may be wrong in saying that, it may be that when we die, it very well may be that when I die, according to the race it's soon, you dig it. According to my desire it's much later you know but whenever that is, if I find myself before the throne, if I find myself before the throne of God with his long happy beard, and he judges me and condemns me for not following Martin Luther King for not advocating nonviolence in the face of violence, if he condemns me for that and casts me down into the hell fire to burn forever, what I'm gonna do is look around for the advocates of pussy power, for the members of the Black Panther Party, for all the revolutionaries who are sure to be there with me, and say let's get a coalition going against the devil and deal with him, see, and deal with the devil, see, and if God, and if God and his wisdom forms a coalition with the devil against us, then we have to deal with him. Huey P. Newton says that the spirit of the people is greater than the mass technology. Dig it. That we have to move beyond the technology, overcome the technology and that the human spirit should never be crushed beneath any octopus, beneath any monstrosity, no matter what that name. I say it's better to have anarchy than to have a system of oppression and I go along with Lucifer who was cast out of heaven and who said it's better to rule in hell than to serve in heaven. That's what Secotore (phonetic) and Ginnie (phonetic) said when DeGaulle asked him to knuckle under to his new constitution. Secotore (phonetic) said that we'd rather be slaves in our own country, slaves to ourselves, and free to ourselves than to be slaves to the French, slaves to the oppressors, slaves to the imperialists (phonetic). That we'd rather perish in our poverty, die free under our own government, under our own freedom than to bow down and (not audible) to the pigs of the power structure, and that has to be the spirit of the people, it has to be because there are a number of things that we have to do.

The number one thing for the Black Panther Party is freein' our leader, Huey P. Newton. Huey P. Newton must be set free. Now this pig, the pig court in Alameda County, what they did, they decided which judge they wanted to preside over that case so they didn't have a black judge over there to give it to, that they could rely on to bring 'em back the verdict they wanted, so they picked what historically is considered to be next to a black man in this country, they had a Jewish judge, Judge Monroe Friedman. Today is Yom Kippur, is that right? The day of atonement. And unless our plans were aborted there should be a demonstration goin' on before Judge Monroe Friedman's synagogue today in memory of those who perished in the Warsaw ghetto and calling attention to those who presided over the final solution to the Jewish problem, they have picked a Jewish judge (not audible), the gentiles, the racists hiding behind. The Jewish judge because they thought the people would say, well, he's an honest man, he has some knowledge and some history of dealing with oppression and racism so that this man would definitely give a fair verdict. This is what they want us to believe, but I went to that court and I watched that pig preside over that trial. I watched them when evidence was presented when the defense brought forth witnesses with pertinent testimony. I watched him send the jury out so they couldn't hear it and listen to it and then say that that's not relevant and wouldn't allow it to come before the jury. I watched him do that. And I watched them when the attorney discovered that the district attorney had falsified, had falsified a document by an eye witness who had said that he didn't see the man that he couldn't identify the man who had done the shooting. They changed that to read that he did see the man and that he could identify the man who did the shooting. This is what they did. They falsified, that they changed it and that went before the jury and when the attorney discovered it, and tried to bring the new discovery before the jury I watched this pig. Judge Monroe Friedman, refuse to allow that to go before the jury so he's a murderer, he's a pig and he is a disgrace to the memory of his brothers, his ancestors, his relatives who perished in Nazi Germany in the warsaw ghetto and this is a day of atonement and I have no faith at all that that pig is atoning for anything.

As matter of fact what I'd better be doin' is getting ready to go on trial before him in that same court on charges that I tried to ambush some Oakland pig. Can you imagine that, they had all these weapons, they had guns that they use in Vietnam and they said that we tried to ambush those pigs, but I can shoot straight, you dig, you see. I can shoot straight because I practiced, see, I have long practiced and I know that I can shoot straight and I know that the people that they have charged as my co-defendants, I know that they can shoot straight and if we had tried to ambush those pigs they would have been dead. But what they did, they shot us, they murdered Bobby Hutton, and they shot me, and then charged me for trying to - I got it (apparently talking to another individual on podium) trying to ambush those pigs, so that when you deal with a situation like that when you deal with pigs, drunken pigs on a police department who are so ravenous in their hatred for black people that they drive by our offices and shoot holes through the window and take target practice at pictures of Huey P. Newton, myself, and little Bobby Hutton, whom they've already killed, drunken Oakland pigs, charging us with doin' to them what in fact they've been doin' to us. And the case that you know about where they shot up our office, that wasn't the first time that that happened. I mean that's (did not complete word) they been doin' that all along, we stopped complaining about it because when we complained about it in the past what they said was this was a publicity stunt by the Black Panther Party that we were trying to get our name into the paper but on this particular night they came by and they shot up the office and other people saw it, not the members of the Black Panther Party, although some of them saw it, but they were so stupid that they came by in a convoy and lying chief (phonetic) Gaines (phonetic) of the Oakland Police Department appealed to the people not to condemn the Oakland Police Department as a whole just because there were two bad apples in the barrel. He was lying because there was not just two officers, there was a convoy of three or four cars and the only reason that these two got caught was some citizen Mexican-American woman wrote down the number of the car, one car was a black and white car with a number on the side. the rest of 'em was plain cars that you couldn't see the license plate in the dark, but these pigs came down, stopped in front of the office, fired their shots and went down and made a U-turn, and came back and shot some more and when they shot the first shots and the report of the guns brought the people out and when they came back they watched them in amazement shooting up the office and they charged them with firing guns into a building that might possibly have been inhabited by people. They should have charged them with the intent to commit murder because in fact there are apartments above our office and apartments behind our office and these high-powered rifles that they were using penetrated through the walls, went through several walls, and went into the apartments where people were sleeping, men, women, and children, so why aren't they charged with attempt to commit murder? You go down and shoot a hole in the Police Department window and see what they charge you with. They gonna kill you, that's what they gonna do, so why should they get off so lightly and why should this lying Chief of Police Pig (phonetic) Gaines come out and say that not to condemn the entire Oakland Police Department when he knows that there were more than two officers involved, two pigs involved, when he knows that two hundred members of the Oakland Police Department threatened not to show up for work if those two men were disciplined. That's what they did. They threatened to go on strike if they were disciplined after committing this outrageous act. So there's something rotten in the Oakland Police Department, and we say it is the Oakland Policemen. It's not the building, it's not the books, it's not the physical paraphernalia of the Police Department, it's these beasts, these brutes that were recruited.

Stokely Carmichael says that he was going through Big Foot, Alabama, one day he went to the Post Office and he saw a poster on the wall, an advertisement from the Oakland Police Department, calling upon the people in that state to come to Oakland to receive a ten thousand dollar a year job as police officers, so that we have racists, murderers, liars, Minutemen, Ku Klux Klansmen on the police departments, and we see a phenomena developing all over this country where the police look like they're (not audible, possibly running amuck) and getting out of hand. What you have to understand is that the police have developed a cast (phonetic) cast-consciousness just as the military has a cast-consciousness that they are charged with certain noble duties, they're defenders of the people. There's a mythology (phonetic) and a mystique (phonetic) involved in that. They are the guardian angels, standing guard over the people, against the barbaric horrors from without, they see themselves like the first pig in history, Saint Michael the Archangel, the Chief of the Police at that time, who was sent by the power structure at that time to the Garden of Eden, a city by that name, to evict the people there who had decided to exercise a little free will. He went there with his flaming sword, the forefather, ancestor of the policemen's gun and drove the people out of that city and that's how, that's their tradition, their tradition flows from that. In the western world they see themselves as the guardian angels of civilization. They are motivated by honor, duty, and self-sacrifice and they feel themselves to be misunderstood and so they want to remake society, civilization in their own image. They are united with demagogic politicians. In the Bay area we have a politician running for the assembly and he is a candidate of the Oakland Police Department and you talk about a military industrial complex you gotta talk about a police military industrial complex because the police perform domestically what the military does internationally. The same function. This is why the Black Panther Party talk about the police as an occupying army because they're in control of the same people, who control the military, the same people. After Lyndon Johnson placed the problems of the black community on the Pentagon, after the heroic uprisings by freedom fighters in Detroit, he didn't place it under the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, he turned it over to Robert Strange McNamara, who at that time was the Head of the War Department, the Defense Department, and so they have these battle plans that they have drawn up in the Pentagon and every chief of police with a delegation of his top flight crew have been going to the Pentagon and receiving a blueprint and a battle plan to bring back an implement (phonetic) in these cities. Right here in Sacramento, in San Francisco, in Los Angeles, all over this country they have got that battle plan and the police are becoming militant. They call themselves militant now. The police are the best organized interest groups in this country. They're organized on a military basis. Tight organization from top to bottom, they have an ideology, they have position papers, and they have international machinery. You've heard of the International Association of the Chiefs of Police. They've got their lobbies, and they've got big money and they cast with all of these motivations and they've combined with politicians and they're moving to consolidate their control and make their power overt and they're goin' to defend their turf and the people must dispute their turf and we must return it to control of the people. It has to be done. I know that black people are saying this, that we recognize that this is the last go round, that we either gonna have freedom for everybody or there's gonna be destruction. We will participate democratically in the destruction of this country or we will participate democratically in the regeneration of this country. It's largely up to white people and I think that like Bobby Dillon says in Mister Jones, talking about keeping up with the Joneses. Bobby Dillon tells Mister Jones that there is something goin' on there is something happenin' and you don't know that it is do you Mister Jones. Well, he don't know, Mickey Mouse Reagan don't know. That's why we just have to hold that class over there, to get that thing through to him. That's why we have to come here. That's why we must have pussy power. That's why all power must be returned to the people because there has never been Government of the people, for the people, by the people in this country. There has never been that.

We say all power to the people, black power to black people, Eskimo power to the Eskimo people, red power to the red people, yellow power to the yellow people, brown power to the brown people, and white power to the white people. We don't get uptight about that cause white people have never had white power, they've had pig power. That's all they've had, they've had pigs functioning in their name. They've had pigs functioning in their name, telling the white people that they are carrying out the will of white people when they been carrying out the will and interest of a small clique in society that uses racism as a tool to oil and to smooth the operation of their exploiting machine, and racism comes second, exploitation is primary because when the Europeans, following Marco Polo, and went around, you dig it, investigated the world, calling all of Europe, which was in bad-shape you recall Marco Polo didn't drive into town in a Cadillac, he went there damn near dead and a Chinese lady (not audible) a piece of silk and nursed him. The Pilgrims didn't come to America on the Queen Mary, on the Presidential Lines, they came in some raggedy boats and they fell upon Plymouth rock and the Redmen, you know in the book they teach that the first five years were the hardest, the Redmen taught them corn, taught them turkey, and taught them to survive in the wilderness of North America and we know how they have been paid for that. But you also notice when they were coming out and they encountered other cultures around the world that they didn't have their philosophy of white supremacy, that they found that they had a cultural advantage that when they got gun powder from China (phonetic) they had the idea of putting it together in a boom stick that could defeat the spear and the bow and arrow that could defeat the means of defense that the other cultures had and they found an opportunity to move in, and move in they did, and they started (not audible) a bunch of people with their religion they started thunkin', that wow, this is a groovy game we got goin' and that sanctified this lets (not audible) holy water on this so that the preachers and the popes start elaborating theory and doctrine that could make their holy could make that come from the mouth of God himself so that some of the priests who believe in christianity who went out and taught their religion to the other people around the world, in Africa, Asia and Latin America and in North America and turned them into christians that they start believing well these people are human, these people have souls to and its wrong, it's wrong to enslave these people. So they began to say well we can't enslave 'em, if they're christians, well let's declare them inferior, let's declare them not human, subhuman, beasts of burden, and let's say that we're civilizing them and we're doin' them a favor for all the favors that they're doin' us. You dig it. So they did that and they began to spin out a philosophy that justified all this and we began to get in the philosophy of white supremacy basis of the whole racism that we're dealing with today until we give today a full blown institutionalized philosophy that forms the very consciousness of people in this country today white racism, white supremacy and black inferiority that it's based upon the necessity of sanctifying this system and it has to be rooted out, it has to be placed into the garbage can of history because today black people are saying I'm black and I'm proud. I'm black and I'm beautiful and we cannot dig it and I know that Sacramento has a pig pen environment and I notice that all the sisters don't have their naturals yet but they gonna get into that and right on out.

I know you might get up tight about that but pussy power to you, pussy power. But, and everybody, I mean that's the cultural revolution that's goin' on in the black community, the culture revolution is goin' on in the white community this is a source of a decisive break with the past you people who are striking out, assuming the white man's burden, you dig it, and trying to find a way to move into another century, into another world and we can do it because I'm 22 years old you understand, I went to prison when I was 22 and when I got out I was a little older than that and I say the time stopped the day they put me in jail and the day that I walked out the time started again so I'm 22 and I don't care what anybody says about that. So that we have to relate and build a movement of young people. Later (apparently to member of crowd) we have to build a movement that will unite young people that will provide young people with machinery that they need to save the world, to save this country and to save the people and we cannot let governors, presidents, judges, or parole officers stop us from doin' what just has to be done so if you shoot me down today, if you drive me back to prison today, fuck you, you're a pig and it's gonna be done whether I participate in that or not, because wherever I am, I'm gonna be what I've always been, Eldridge Cleaver speaks for himself and later for the pigs.

In closing I'd just like to say all power to the people, all power to the people and down with the pigs of the power structure. Pussy power, student power, young people power, and lets save the world cause the world is ready to help us do that. (not audible)

Re Bureau letter to Baltimore, 10/21/68

WFO is of the opinion that the Chamber of Commerce can make a positive constructive contribution to society by aiding in the solution of the problem of the violence of black extremists.

It is noted that in the past, the Chamber of Commerce has sponsored such programs as an advertising campaign which featured the idea of supporting your local police. A similar campaign sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce could be used to promote job opportunities for ghetto residents and black youths. It could use its influence with member organizations to encourage them to actively recruit and train the hard-core unemployed of the ghetto. Programs of this nature have been sponsored by the Federal Government and by certain individual companies but, to date, the Chamber of Commerce has never lent its support on a large scale to backing these programs.

In as much as one of the functions of local Chambers is to encourage visitors to its city, it would seem that they could sponsor and encourage member organizations to participate in programs which aid in the elimination of slums and ghetto areas.

These suggestions are necessarily vague but they have specific relevance when looked at from the view of the militant who sees the Chamber of Commerce and other similiar organizations as merely extentions of the white establishment. The view of the Chamber of Commerce is that of an organization whose membership consists of the merchants who exploit the black people in the ghetto.

The Chamber of Commerce has no power to force its members to take action in a socially relevant project, however, it can by the use of its money and influence, encourage its members to take part in programs to increase the opportunities for blacks. Of recent note is the program being funded by a number of large insurance companies to provide capital for low cost housing projects. The Chamber of Commerce either national or local can sponsor such programs.

Programs such as those noted above could effectively aid in countering black militants because they would give the residents of the ghetto a part in the economic life of the nation and thereby reduce their dissaffection with their local communities. If they share in the economic life of the community, they would be less likely to support individuals or organizations which tend to disrupt that society.

Re Bureau letter to Baltimore, Et al, dated 10/21/68.

Detroit feels the Michigan State and Detroit Chambers of Commerce could make a significant contribution to the Bureau's efforts to counter violence by black extremists.

It is suggested Detroit could establish liaison with a reliable individual in both the Detroit and Michigan State Chambers of Commerce.
This would enable Detroit to furnish public source information to these two groups for release to the news media and businesses within the Detroit area.
It is anticipated that a judicious release of this type information would enable Detroit to focus attention on the least attractive aspects of black nationalists in the Detroit area and effectively combat their popular appeal. It is also felt Detroit could substantially quell the spreading of unfounded rumors by releasing pertinent information to the Chambers of Commerce.
